

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

'A Mad Motorist, Threat to Society...'

Dear Ann Landers: I've only been married a few weeks. Pete and I get along fairly well with the exception of one thing which bothers me terribly. He has a hot temper which gets out of control when he is behind the wheel of a car.

If another driver does something to annoy him, such as pulling away from a light first, or passing him too closely, Pete will yell some ugly profanity out the window. Sometimes the other driver doesn't like this and they have a running argument on the street. Once a driver accidentally bumped into the rear and Pete got out of his car and wanted to fight him.

This is embarrassing to me and I've begged him to cool off. I'm afraid one day he'll tangle with the wrong guy and get his head knocked off. What can I do—IRISH EYES

Dear Irish: Courtesy behind the wheel of a car can spell the difference between life and death. Drivers who vent their hostilities on other drivers often wind up in a hospital — or worse yet, in a morgue. And sometimes they take a carload of innocent people with them.

Tell Pete to work out his anger on a golf course, on a tennis court, in a bowling alley or in a swimming pool. A mad motorist, like a mad dog, is a threat to society.

Dear Ann Landers: In 1959 our brother married a woman none of us cared for. I won't go into the reasons here. He died 11 months later and left her a lovely home, a car, insurance — in other words, plenty comfortable.

Before his body was hardly cold (six months after the funeral) she started to go out with other men. Our mother is very upset because this woman still wears the diamond rings our brother gave her.

Mother says that since she has no children and is conducting herself like a single girl she should give up her rings. We feel it would be nice if she gave her rings to Mother because Mother has never owned a diamond and this would make her very happy. Also this woman wasn't married long enough to deserve half of what she got.—CONCERNED FAMILY

Dear Family: If you think a diamond ring would make your Mother "very happy" why don't you all get together and buy her one?

A widow has the right to wear her rings even if she was married only five minutes. And from the tone of your letter, THIS particular widow isn't going to give you cultures the time of day — forget it.

Dear Ann: The divorcee who signed her letter "Satisfied" SHOULD have signed it "Very Fortunate."

How many divorced women have "a small income from father's estate" and "a good (Continued on Page 30)

CC Manager To Address Pilot Club

The March 22 program meeting of the Pilot Club will be held at the Jump'n Jack restaurant, 2900 Pacific Coast Hwy., Torrance. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. with the introduction of Don Reining, manager of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, as guest speaker.

Mr. Reining will explain the functions of the Chamber and discuss the new Progress Map of Torrance which is now available.

Mrs. Lucy Grimesey, Governor of District 18 of Pilot International, will be honored guest of the evening. Mrs. Grimesey is paying the club her annual official visit, coming here from her home in Sacramento. Reservations for this Thursday meeting can be made by calling Joan Phipps Laup.

GOAL ATTAINED... Torrance Memorial Hospital auxiliary presented a check for $2000 to be used for the pediatric ward at the hospital, to Leonard Ensminger, hospital administrator. The check represented the proceeds from the auxiliary's Valentine Ball. Ensminger, left, and

Dr. Carl Tabellario, chief of staff, are shown accepting the check from Mmes. Paul Winn, auxiliary president, and Ben H. Smith, first vice president. Earlier this year the auxiliary donated $1,000 which was used to furnish the reception room and the coffee lounge at the hospital.

MRS. JOSEPH BAY
... Woman's Club President
(Dean's Studios)

Fuccis Hosts At Breakfast

Mark Fucci, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fucci of Sharynne Lane, was a member of the First Holy Communion class at St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church last Saturday morning.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Fucci entertained at a family breakfast at their home.

Attending were Mark's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Fucci; his great-grandfather Dominic Stancati of Endicott, N.Y.; uncles and aunts, Messrs. and Mmes. Frank Stancati, Al Elkin and Henry Devine; and Mark's brothers, Gregory, Michael and David.

CHUNKING THE LISTS... Mrs. Lloyd M. Hennen, left, ticket chairman, and Mrs. Donald L. Meyer, reservations, look over the list for their Las Vecinas fashion show and luncheon to be held Thursday March 29 in the Crystal room at the Beverly Hills Hotel. Saks Fifth Avenue will furnish the designer show. All proceeds will go to the club's philanthropies.

Installation in June

Mrs. Bay Named Club President

Mrs. Joseph P. Bay has been elected to serve as president of the Torrance Woman's Club for the club year 1962-1963. She is presently serving as program chairman and also as a coordinator for the junior club. She has in the past held office as historian, youth chairman, treasurer and first vice president. She has been a member of the Senior club for six years and was a member of the Junior club prior to that time.

Mrs. Bay is the wife of Dr. Joseph P. Bay, local optometrist. She is the mother of two sons, Alan, 9 years of age, and Steven, 7 years of age. She is a native of California.

Her other activities include den mother for cub scouts, room mother for Miraleste School PTA, and assisting with projects of Pee Wee and Little League baseball. She is a member of the auxiliary of the Los Angeles County Optometric Association. She and her husband serve as boatswain's mates for the Beachcomber Mariner's group of the First Presbyterian Church, San Pedro.

The president-elect resides at 14 Coach Road, Rolling Hills, and was a resident of Torrance for 10 previous years.

Elected to serve with her at the March 21 meeting were Mmes. Alma Smith, first vice president; Russell M. Clawson, second vice president; A. H. Brown, third vice president; J. G. Louvier, recording secretary; E. G. Laughney, corresponding secretary, and Miss Corlista Reeve, treasurer. Others are Mmes. D. E. Moore, auditor; Fred Sandstrom, reservations; Andrew Acampora, program chairman; David Lyman, year book.

Installation will be held June 6 at the clubhouse.

Neighbors Celebrate St. Pat Day

Neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Moeder, 1115 Patronella Ave., Saturday for a St. Patrick party.

A "blarney stone" centered the coffee table and shamrocks were used effectively.

Champagne cocktails were enjoyed, followed by a buffet supper served from a table decorated with white lilies and green stock.

Enjoying the "Irish Day" party with the Moeders were Messrs. and Mmes. Alfred Byk, Arthur Mallo, Reid Bundy, Thomas Ayles, Francis Sequeira, John Osborn, and Mrs. Edgar Balko of San Pedro.

At Beverly Hills Hotel

Vecinas Show Slated March 29

"Treasures of Spring" will set the stage for the preview of new fashions created by world's top designers, for the Las Vecinas Women's Club annual fashion luncheon March 29, in the Crystal Room of the Beverly Hills Hotel.

The fashions will include those of Scassi, Treivilla, Christian Dior, Sophie, Maurice Rentner, and Oleg Cassini, according to chairmen Mmes. Albert E. Kurz, and Roy A. Menashe. The styles will be provided by Sak's Fifth Avenue. Fashion coordinator and commentator will be Miss Elizabeth Brady. Jerry Rosen and his orchestra will provide the musical background.

Table decoration centerpieces designed by Mrs. Robert A. Hoag and her committee will feature artistically-decorated brandy snifters with a surprise treasure concealed within. Decorations will be purple and placed on pink table cloths.

Funds raised by the function will go toward supporting the club's many philanthropic projects, such as, scholarships, AFS students, Exceptional Children's School, Harbor General Hospital, and sponsorship of Brownie and Girl Scout troops.

Persons wishing to place reservations may call Mrs. Donald L. Meyer.

Assisting committees in charge of the fashion benefit are Mmes. Bruce Mapes, ways and means; William D. Peterson, prizes; John J. Barton, advertising; Lloyd M. Hennen, tickets; Henry Schmal, program; George E. Betus, hostess; and George Kuehnel, publicity.

Other events of the show will be the awarding of the door prizes which include three-day trips to either the Bahi Resort Hotel, San Diego; The Dunes or Riviera Hotels in Las Vegas. A set of Samsonite luggage will be given to the club member who sells the most tickets.

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MARCH 22, 1962

29

BRUSHING UP... These three members of Chi Omega Alumnae, from left, Mmes. James S. McGhee, decoration chairman, U. Peter Krahenbuhl, luncheon chairman and Roger F. Wolcott, president, take a turn at a hand of bridge as they prepare for their annual card party benefit Saturday at the Plush Horse Inn. Proceeds will go to their philanthropic project, the Garden Valley Assn. for Retarded Children.

Spring Dance Saturday

Bees, lambs and flowers, all significant of spring, will be used in decorating the Palos Verdes Country Club next Saturday evening when three local clubs, Triple T, Las Fiestadores and Sobada stage their annual Spring Dance.

A social hour will be held from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., followed by dancing to Les Trousiers orchestra. Men will wear the beehive name tags and the committee has planned flower name tags for the women.

Planning the annual event are Messrs. and Mmes. Harold Massie, Gilbert Derouin and Robert Allred from the Sobada Club; Messrs. and Mmes. Art Woodcock, H. J. Backlund, E. E. Wilson, William Christian and Robert Tolson, Las Fiestadores; and Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Rojo, Nick Drale, William Shawyer and Louis Dyer of the Triple T.

For Garden Valley Assn.

Chi Omega Alumnae Benefit on Saturday

A Spring theme will be carried out at the fourth annual benefit-card party sponsored by the South Bay Chi Omega Alumnae on Saturday at the Plush Horse Inn. Mrs. U. Peter Krahenbuhl, luncheon chairman, has announced that table prizes, tallies and decorations have been planned to provide a fitting welcome to the new season.

Mrs. Krahenbuhl's sub-chairmen are Mrs. James S. McGhee, decoration, and Mrs. Richard Gazeley, door prizes. All proceeds from the luncheon will go to the group's philanthropic project, the Garden Valley Association for Mentally Retarded Children.

Planning to attend with Mrs. Krahenbuhl are Mmes. Fred C. Thiede, John V. Dixon, Gamble M. Stendel, Earle C. Freeland, Franklin B. Hansen, Jr. S. J. Hondros, Gustaf W. Nelson, and William R. Thompson. In Mrs. Charles V. Murphy's party will be the Mmes. H.F.B. Roessler, Norman S. Thulin, Edward H. Raymond, Frederick Bassick II, Edwin F. Keran, B. C. Koepke, Guy D. Edgecomb, Claude T. Frimann, Lewis M. Andrews, Fletcher Baughn, Ronald M. Schlegel, John F. Baughman, Edward M. Boardman and John J. Knezevich.

Others who have made reservations are Mmes. Philip F. Barretta, Edward T. Gnup, Frank Lada, Roger Wolcott, Frank Scattergood, John Wedderin, C. F. Wolcott, Emma Horrall, J. S. McGhee, Phillip Daher, Conrad Youngerman, Richard Smith, Fred Gilmore, Richard O'Brien, Anthony Maggio and Joseph Klaren.

More planning to attend are Mmes. John Nelson, Joseph Terlizzi, Donald Cardiff, Richard Leutke, Robert A. Moore, George Weston, James Hay, John Ribar, Dwight Crum, Fred Reese, Leona Gould, Jack Farber, William V. Schneider, Robert Roberts, Roy Seawright, James Bailey, David Bradley, Herbert Bergloff, Edward Martin, Andrew Lowery, Walter F. Arnold, and Harold Bugbie.

In Mrs. Arthur's party will be Mmes. Neal Snidow, William F. Repke, Paul O'Kain, Howard Cleveland, Howard Hulzing, Alexander Hume and William Greenwood.

SPRING BONNETS... Hollywood Riviera Rotary Ann's a v parade of the new spring hats furnished by a Hollywood Riviera Hat shop at their social meeting Wednesday at the Plush Horse Inn. Modeling two of the new creations are from left, Mmes. Jack Whiting president, and Mrs. Jack Spencor, publicity chairman.