Boy Scout Troop 242

Fifteen Boy Scouts and five dads of Christ the King Lutheran Church Troop 242 of North Torrance participated in the annual tree planting project on Sunday, March 11, at the Circle X Boy Scout Camp.

The participating Boy Scouts were chosen representatives of the troop which has 40 active scouts.

Each year, for the past five years, usually in March, members of Troop 242 have planted pine trees at the Circle X Boy Scout Camp. The tree planting project helps in reforestation, soil conservation, and generally beautifying the camp area.

This year, four pine trees in five-gallon containers were planted.

The Circle X Boy Scout Camp is located some 20 miles north of Malibu Beach on Coast Highway 101 and is approximately five miles inland from the highway.

The following Boy Scouts participated in the tree planting project: Marty Dupree, David and Donald Meyer, Billy Spindler, Carl Yanagihara, Larry Adams, Melvin Iizuka, Stephen Elde, David Miller, Lester Hurst, Joe Groves, Jim Jones, John and Greg Lemke, and Kelsey Baughman. Dads participating were: Ken Lemke, Kay Iizuka, Bob Jones, and Ich Yanagihara.

The day was completed with charcoal broiled steaks with all of the "fixins" to all participants.

During 1960-1961, patrol cars of the California Highway Patrol traveled some 48,428,000 miles on rural and state highways. It is estimated in 1961-1962, these same units will cover 51,900,000 miles.
