SCRIPT REVIEW . . . William Fredericks, president of the Nativity church Holy Name Society, reviews script with Sister Maureen Mark and Sister Ann Joseph for recent unusual "for women only" program presented by the society in the church auditorium. Vacation program told of nun's life in the Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange Order during breakfast meeting for the members of the society and their daughters.

Paintings to Be Exhibited

Paul William Backensten, former U.S. Marine who has attracted wide attention for his work in portrait and landscape painting, will stage an exhibition of his latest canvasses at Marymount College during April.

Norway, and moved to the United States with his family when he was 11. He is a graduate of the Des Moines Cummings Art School, and has been a resident of Lodge Hill in Cambria, Calif., since 1953. He has had exhibitions at the University of Iowa, Kansas City Art Institute, Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, the Denver and Los Angeles County Art Museums.

His showing on the Palos Verdes Estates campus of Marymount is in the nature of a return engagement, since his exhibition last year of portraits was a widely attended success.
