Lee Lease to Head Torrance Elks Lodge

Lee Lease, a deputy sheriff, has been elected exalted ruler of the Torrance Elks Lodge.

He succeeds Charles Marquand. Lease and other new officers will be installed Wednesday at the lodge hall, 1820 Abalone Ave. An inaugural ball is scheduled for Saturday, April 7.

Lease has been a member of the Elks for 18 years. He is a charter member of the Torrance lodge and has served as an officer in various capacities. Lease is a graduate of the Los Angeles Police Academy and served as an officer on that city's force for three years before becoming a deputy sheriff 17 years ago.

The new Elks leader is assigned to the civil division at Long Beach where he lives with his wife, Georgette and daughter, LeEtte.

PAT HUFFINE
