condolence (as well as the kind acts done during your period of bereavement) should be acknowledged.

For those who sent commercial cards, a printed acknowledgement is adequate. However, when a friend takes the time and trouble to write or type (yes, it's proper) a personal message, he should receive in return a personal, not commercially printed, thank you in the mail.

Confidential to UN-IMPRESSED: So am I. Tell your boy friend that if he has to keep telling everyone who he is — then he isn't.

Are you going steady? Making marriage plans? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Before You Marry — Is It Love Or Sex?" enclosing with your request 30 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Re-Elect

ALBERT ISEN

MAYOR OF TORRANCE

His noteworthy record of achievement ranges from national recognition of Torrance as an "All America City" award winner in 1956 to the recent successful drive to locate the Southwest District Superior Court here, and includes constructive legislation on hundreds of important matters.

"KEEP TORRANCE THE ALL AMERICAN CITY"

CITY-WIDE COMMITTEE TO RE-ELECT MAYOR ALBERT ISEN
JACK PHILLIPS, Chairman POLLY WATTS, Secretary

AT APACHE TEEPEE... Mrs. Lou Bednarchik and Mrs. Joe Di Santo of the Parkway PTA talk peace with Apaches Joe Di Santo, first grader and Patti Jo Lindley, 8th grader, in preparation for the Wild West Gala Day at the school on Saturday April 7. Festivities begin at 12 noon and continue until 4:30. There'll be western "vittles," popcorn and punch as well as fun booths for all ages. Mrs. M. W. Kostich is chairman. Mrs. Pete Salmon, Parkway PTA president, invites the public to attend.

Housewarming

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Duke, who recently bought a home in Whittier, were surprised by a housewarming by mem-Eta Mu chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha. They brought unlabeled cans of food and an array of gifts for the new home.

Cocktails were served, followed by a buffet supper.

To Install in May

South Bay Hadassah Elects New Officers

Mrs. Max Stern was elected to serve as president of the South Bay Hadassah chapter for the coming year at its March meeting.

Others elected to serve with Mrs. Stern were Mrs. Frank Goetz, organizational vice president; Mrs. Boris Rothberg, educational vice president; Mrs. Robert Breakstone, program vice president; Mrs. Jack Mishlove, program chairman; Mrs. Ernest Tarr, membership; Mrs. Harry Hyman, recording secretary; Mrs. Edward Lockman, financial secretary; Mrs. Abraham Janoff, treasurer.

New officers will be installed at a luncheon in May. Next regular meeting of the South Bay Chapter of Hadassah will be held Tuesday, April 3, at 11 a.m. at the Community room of the American Savings and Loan Co., in the South Bay Shopping Center.

Club Dance

"Swing your partner and do se do" was the call Wednesday, March 28, as members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club and their husbands spent an evening of square dancing at the clubhouse. The dancing followed a pot luck dinner which began at 6:30 p.m.

The room was decorated with barnyard animals. Completing the barn dance atmosphere were hurricane lanterns and red and white checked table cloths.

Fun and Fund Club to Meet

Fun and Fund club of Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet at Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave. on Wednesday at 11 a.m. This will be a regular meeting and pot luck luncheon. President Glada Yost will be in charge and all members are invited.

The lodge rummage sale has been postponed until Wednesday, April 18, and will be held at the Hitch Rock Rummage Center, 15636 Hawthorne Blvd., Lawndale.

Those having rummage to donate are asked to call Juanita Stoneham.

Hostesses for the luncheon meeting will be Mmes. Arthur Jurmein and Nate Winer.

During the meeting, there will be a Passover panel with Mmes. Max Stern, Boris Rothberg and Nacia Satton, as members.

Mrs. Frank Goetz has planned a white elephant auction. All members and friends are invited to attend.

Auxiliary Aids Projects

Reports were given at the meeting of the Fleet Reserve Assn. Unit 217 at which Mrs. Tom Davis, president, was in charge.

During the business meeting it was reported that the Harbor View Auxiliary had made donations to the Cancer Society, Community Chest, National Red Cross and to purchase a wreath for an annual National Pilgrimage to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Mrs. Jave Miekley reported that she had taken the National President of the Fleet Reserve Assn, Joseph Keen and Mrs. Keen, who is president, southwest, to the National Officers Night at China Lake.

Mrs. Harry Fralich was chairman of the social hour. Guests included Mrs. Doris Yarbrow of Laconia, New Hampshire and Mrs. Ethel Suedmeyer, Unit 204, Gardena.

TO VISIT HERE... Dorothy Gray representative, Miss Mary Ann DeGermaine, will join with other top beauty experts to present "How To Be Beautiful Week" at the Broadway Del Amo, April 2 to 7.

Beauty Fair At Broadway April 2 to 7

Beauty experts representing nearly every nationally-known cosmetic firm will combine talents to present "How To Be Beautiful Week" at the Broadway Del Amo, April 2-7.

The fifteen highly trained cosmeticians will describe and demonstrate beauty techniques and offer free consultation to women of the South Bay and Peninsula areas. Their professional recommendations are ones which underlie beauty products of the most respected names in the cosmetic industry.

Topics for the six-day beauty school cover such basics as cleansing and protecting the skin, step-by-step lessons in proper make-up application, a complete nail-care clinic and, upon request, private beauty analysis.

Advice and instructions from these licensed beauty experts will be available at no charge between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. in the Cosmetic Department.

Parents, Inc. Party Given At Hospital

Parents Inc. of Riviera Community Hospital staged an entertaining and informative maternity party with many expectant parents attending. Door prizes consisting of baby bottles, baby food, training tumbler and baby photos were awarded during the evening.

The serving table was decorated in green and white carnations and green stock. Party favors were in the St. Patrick motif. Mrs. Kenneth Lewin, chairman, and Mrs. Raymond Martin, co-chairman, served as hostesses for the evening.

Walter Williams, accounts manager, and Mrs. Diane Smith, of the auditing staff, spoke on insurance costs and equipment.

Mrs. Betty Zollinger, supervisor of obstetrics, outlined the services and took guests on a tour of the hospital including the delivery rooms and nursery.

Mrs. Ruth Burke, representative of the Heinz Co., showed a film on "Baby Care."

Mrs. William Bailey, president of the auxiliary, spoke to the group.

Next party for Parents Inc. will be held at 7:30 p.m. April 17 in the hospital staff room. Anyone wishing to attend may call the hospital.

Scotts Hosts

Among the recent hosts at the Pen & Quill Hotel in Manhattan Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Edmund M. Scott of Hollywood Riviera, who entertained at a dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Leonard of Hollywood Riviera.
