Guild To Present Hat Show

Amid hats and spring flowers, members of Sacred Heart Guild will hold a "Hat Fantasy" at St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church Hall on Thursday, April 5, from 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Highlight of the afternoon will be a millinery demonstration by Mrs. Fred Hayes, who has ten years experience in this field.

One of Mrs. Hayes' custom-made creations has been selected as the "mystery hat" to be given away at the close of the demonstration.

Special feature of the affair will be a display of hats for girls, aged two to eight.

Guests will also be treated to a spring luncheon during the course of the afternoon.

Arrangements for the "Hat Fantasy" are in charge of Mrs. Donald Coughlin, prefect, assisted by Sacred Heart Guild members.

Mrs. Katherine Lane will conduct the business meeting. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Laura Ross and Pansy Williamson, hostesses.

MRS. ROGER MOLDENHAUER . . . Recent Bride (Leonard Lat Photo)

Sandra Ruggles Is Now Mrs. R. A. Moldenhauer

In a wedding ceremony at 7 o'clock on Friday, March 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ruggles, 1920 W. 241st, Torrance, their daughter, Miss Sandra Sue Ruggles plighted her marriage promises with Roger Allen Moldenhauer. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moldenhauer, 1036 Greenhedge, Torrance.

Rev. Don Virgil stood before the altar to officiate at the wedding ceremony as Mrs. Virgil, pianist, played the nuptial music. She also accompanied Shirley Johns who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Ruggles escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of white imported English lace over white satin. Her silk illusion veil was held by a floral headpiece and she carried a white Bible topped by a white orchid bouquet.

Miss Karen Moldenhauer, sister of the bridegroom, stood as maid of honor. She was gowned in a lavender dress and carried an orchid bouquet.

Gary Brown stood as best man and Noldan Dane served as usher.

After the wedding, a reception was held for family members and close friends. The newly married couple are now at home on Arlington Ave., in Torrance. Both are students at the Narbonne High School.

From Holland

Ruffled Sleeves

Especially interesting sleeve treatments are the ones that end in a jaunty flounce or ruffles . . . some ending above the elbow, others just below.
