Dear Mary Carter:

I've got a little place or my own down on the city dumps, just outside town. Nothing fancy, you understand-in fact, it's hardly more than a few boards thrown together.

But I got to thinking, while I was in Florida this past win-ter, that the old place could use some sprucing up. What would you suggest for putting a country home into A-1 shape? (With somewhat limited funds, that is).

V. A. G.

Dear V. A. G.:

Landscaping is very imper-tant, of course, but I don't sup-pose there's much can be done about a garbage dump. Just kind of spread it around as best

As to the house, Itself, de you think it's strong enough to take a coat of paint? If so, you'll find a wonderful variety of oil or latex-base house paints in every price range at your Mary Carter Paint Store.

Paint not only improves the appearance of a home, but in your case it'll probably help to hold up the walls and keep out the weather, as well.

And how about "every second can free" for anyone who wants real home beauty on a budget? Every day is discount day at Mary Carter Paint Stores, so come on down and browse

Sometimes it pays to be hardboiled

There are certain things you don't want to take chances with. Your savings, for instance. You want to know they're safe. That when you go to get them, they'll be there-the full amount, with interest. And you want to know that-no matter what-someone's being pretty hardboiled about protecting them. Like a bank.
