Ann Landers

(Continued from Page 17) good-natured about this but last week did it. Our daughter-in-law brought her baby over with a temperature of 102. She calmly announced "The baby is probably just teething, but if he's going to be sick he's better off with you. We're going to Minneapolis for a basketball game."

I'm writing at my wife's suggestion. — SECOND TIME AROUND

Dear Second: Where did your children get the idea they could use you this way? Someone must have encouraged it.

Unless you want to spend the next 20 years serving as free sitters for your grandchildren I suggest a family pow-wow. Invite them to take their furniture home and line up competent help to stay with their children. Tell them the old folks are retiring from active duty.

At the close of the canasta games, prizes were given to Mrs. Margie Russell and Ada Anderson.

Guests were Mmes Margie Russell, Jewel Frederickson, Ada Anderson, Lola Nielson, Gertrude Kastrope, Bertha Fern and Esther Hanson.

Are you going steady? Making marriage plans? If so send for ANN LANDERS booklet, "Before You Marry — Is It Love Or Sex?" enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
