Ice Capades Moons May I For L.A. Run

Comp-nament

ived a

et

13th ptimist track e due

p.m. ld May oval, must

Gray-elor at

i to a sys in ception each entries,

or only 0, 180, ay par-

gin significant si

vativity on the , while red the d 1960. cham-57, and walked n 1958. senting is two sailed

np and print in

stand-

ord is entary's rpenter ury in an the agrude Cambo le mark for Ma-

ads

ion

ets

to roll League with the r Palos ill face om Cul-in quali-inals on outh and g up for a Friday lake on the Sax-ood, are set sta.

Hailed as "The Greatest Show on Ice," the 22nd edition of the Ice Capades opens its limited Los Angeles engagement Tuesday evening, May 1, at the Sports Arena.

The premiere opening at 8 p.m. will lure more than 500 screen and television celebri-

With the apt title "2-2 Wonderful" this year's ice extravaganza features 10 full-scale productions.

SPOTLIGHTED will be such world-famed favorites as Ronnie Robertson, Bobby Specht, Sandy Culbertson, Lynn Patsy. Finnegan, Phil Romayne, Cathy Steele, Alan Konrad, Eric Waite, Freddie Trenkler and the Old Smoothles, Orrin Markhus, and Irma Thomas.

Two of the productions, Disneyrama and The Circus, are aimed at the kiddies but the whole family enjoys them.

whole family enjoys them.

whole family enjoys them.

IN DISNEYRAMA, all of Walt Disney's beloved characters, from Mickey and Minnle mouse to Pinnochio, the Seven Dwarfs, Mad Hatter, Pluto, Donald Duck and all the rest come to life.

Not only is this the first time a circus has been attempted on ice, it's the biggest spectacle ever produced by John H. Harris. It's complete with live animals, aerialists, parade, clowns, ring masters and a train. Trenkler, the sad-sack roustabout, is featured and the veteran clown is a genius at getting into trouble.

Torrance Slates Gym Program, Schedules Class

The Torrance Recreation Department has rescheduled a partment has rescheduled a gymnastics program at North High Gymnasium for Tuesday, May 1, at 7:30 p.m. This 45-minute event will be under the direction of Walt Hetz.

The gymnastic class meets each Tuesday evening from 7:30-230 p.m. and is open to all high school students interested in perfecting tumbling and other gymnastic skills.

The Torrance Flying "T" Club is especially invited to attend this special program,

There will be no admission charge. For further information please contact John Furstead at FA 8-5310, Ext. 286.

Angels Set Ladies Day On Thursday

The Los Angeles Angels have set Thursday as Ladles Day for games played at their new home in Chavez Ravine, it was announced today by general manager Fred Haney. The policy applies for both day and night games. Ladles will pay 50 cents for general admission tickets instead of the usual $1.50.

tickets instead of the usual $1.50.

The first game under the plan was last Thursday afternoon, April 19, with the Angels entertaining Kansas City. The other Ladles Day for the club's first home stand is next Thursday afternoon, April 26, in a contest with the Cleveland Indians.

The Angels' policy for Armed Forces personnel will allow servicemen in uniform to be admitted to general admission sections for 50 cents for Lome games.

dog

DOG IS OUR BEST FRIEND He loves you and wags his tail, but you have to yell at him if he isn't housebroken. Dogs are named Fido or Spot or Snooper. Dogs eat dog food once a day and shoes, rugs and furniture all day long. When you come home after a hard day, dog brings you your slippers and newspaper. In Torrance more dogs bring their masters the Herald than any other paper, because more masters enjoy reading its news, features and ads. More cats, birds and goldfish live in houses with the Herald, too. And no wonder, for the Herald is out front by far in circulation (it provides the only audited home delivery solid coverage of the Greater Torrance area.) You can count on more from the Herald because more goes into the Herald!