Garden Checklist

THE TORRANCE HERALD

1. Start feeding tuberous begonias with liquid fish when the tops have about three inches of growth.

2. Use a weed killer for easy control of weeds in parkways and along a driveway where other plant material won't be affected. 3. Protect newly planted annuals from the sun with a shingle or some other shade-giving shield.

4. Lawns may be fed once a month for best results. However, do not exceed the recommended dosage on the package of fertilizer.

5. Feed fuchsias coplously and water them to promote a vigorous new growth of flowering wood.

HERE'S WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN THE MARINES

SUPERIOR LEADERSHIP - The Marine Corps emphasizes leadership and teamwork. Every Marine is both a leader and a member of the team. It is no accident that 87.5% of the officers in the Corps today started out as en-

BE READY - BE TRAINED - Every Marine is trained to a fine edge — as an individual! He's ready to meet any foe. He's healthy, stands straight, looks neat, and has unwavering confidence in himself, his buddies and his officers. A MARINE IS AN EXPERT.—Every Marine is a recognized expert in the use of the weapons he uses to defend himself and his country. That's a Marine tradition!

IT'S A LAND-SEA-AIR TEAM —A complete, all-around fighting force — Marines are well-grounded in land tactics, serve aboard the Navy's powerful warships and operate their own tactical aviation squadrons. This is the triple-threat team you should join — this is the team that has earned the respect and admiration of the whole backed up by an organization that teaches me what to do and how to do it when the going gets rough. And, believe me, that's the Marine Corps!

Marine Training is mighty thorough — I know because I've had it. I learned to think fast on my feet to make split second decisions that have brought me through many a tight squeeze. It's a good feeling to have the "know-how" to do a fighting man's job these days. That's important to you and your family!

You'll be proud to say "I'm a Marine" - When you wear the Marine Corps uniform, your friends, your neighbors, your fellow-countrymen will all know you belong to an outfit that has what it takes. I'm glad I'm a Marine And if you're smart, you'll be a Marine, too!
