

Famed Jester Hairston to Lead Church Choir in Public Concert

In the interest of furthering musical culture and enjoyment in the community, the Chancel Choir of the First Christian Church of Torrance, 2930 Eldorado Ave., has invited internationally known Jester Hairston to conduct an evening of Negro spirituals. The program will take place at 7:30 on May 25. The public is invited.

The choir of 35 members will sing 12 spirituals under Hairston's direction. The selections, all of which have been arranged by him, will include: "I Can Tell the World," "Wade in de Water," and "Great God Almighty."

JESTER HAIRSTON is a graduate of Tufts University, Boston, where he majored in music. He also attended the Juillard Conservatory of Music in New York. He has trained many choirs for Broadway musicals and radio productions, as well as acting as assistant director of the famous Hall Johnson choir.

Since organizing his own choir in 1943 in the Los Angeles area, he has arranged and conducted the choral background music for "Duel in the Sun," "Portrait of Jenny," "Carmen Jones," and many other outstanding films. Hairston has played many character roles in both television and motion pictures, among them "The Alamo," "Summer and Smoke," and will appear soon in "To Kill a Mockingbird."

HE ALSO played the role of "Leroy" in the Amos 'n Andy show for 16 years.

He has just returned from a European good will tour for the State Department where he conducted choirs in America, Austria, Switzerland, and Norway.

C. W. Bartholomew, choir director of the First Christian Church for 11 years, will join the choir for the program which will be accompanied by Mrs. Eleanor Hanes.

CHOIR MEMBERS participating in the concert are: Messrs. and Mmes. Gerald Wood, Marlin Muse, Ellis Myer, Dean Lougee, Fred Lincoln Jr., Howard Foster, James MacDougall, Harold Scott, and C. W. Bartholomew.

Also, Capt. James Rodefer, William Moon, Kenneth Myers, and Robert Pulliam, and Mmes. Phillip Materl, Cleve Carlson, William Somers, Donald Morgan, and Howard Thompson.

More are, Mmes. Howard Black, Roy McCutchen, Robert Gow, C. W. Burks, Charles C. Stark, Jan King, and Lee Livada; Misses Marilyn Voorhees and Karen Bartholomew.

Father Glynn Leaves Local Parish Post

The Rev. Thomas Glynn, an assistant pastor of the Nativity Catholic Church of Torrance for the past eight years, has been transferred to another parish effective last Monday, the Rev. John P. Cremins, pastor, announced last week.

A public reception, honoring Father Glynn for his years of dedicated service to his parishioners and the community, was held in the Nativity church auditorium, Sunday evening.

The Torrance church was Father Glynn's first permanent assignment after being ordained to the priesthood in St. Peter's Wexford Seminary in Ireland. He has served as an assistant to four pastors of Nativity church: the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick McGuinness, the late Rev. Joseph McArdle, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas McCarthy, and the Rev. John P. Cremins.

Fellowship Hall to be Dedicated

Dedication service for a new fellowship hall at the Del Amo Christian Church, 4915 Emerald St., is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. Sunday, May 27. The dedicatory address will be given by Professor T. R. Applebury of the Pacific Christian College in Long Beach.

Sunday Rev. Leslie C. Ashford's sermon topic will be "A Religious Radical Finds God." This is the fourth in a series of five messages on the theme "Men Who Found God."

Bible School is at 9:45 and morning worship at 11 a.m. Sunday afternoon the Christian Youth Fellowship of Del Amo and the youth group of Crenshaw Christian Church will distribute 1,000 announcements of the youth program of the Del Amo Christian Church.

Rev. Addison To Continue With Series

Community Baptist Church of Torrance is learning about the resurrection appearances of Jesus Christ in the Rev. Richard C. Addison's sermon series, "After Easter What?" This series will continue until Pentecost Sunday.

This Sunday morning at the 11 a.m. service the pastor will bring a message from the story of Peter's commissioning, entitled, "The Test of Love." In the Evening Bible Hour at 7 o'clock the message will be on the theme, "Living With the Crucified."

Community Baptist Church, located at 925 W. 223rd St. near Vermont Avenue, offers a varied program of worship instruction and service for all ages. The community is invited to attend Sunday's services beginning with Sunday School at 9:45 a.m.

THE REV. F. E. STOCK Speaks of Pakistan

Evangelist to Tell of Work On Sunday

"They Were All Amazed" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. Edward Pearson of the Children's Baptist Home in Inglewood when he is guest speaker at Torrance First Baptist Church Sunday morning at the 9:15 and 10:45 worship services, according to the Rev. Robert Dehn, acting pastor. The Rev. Mr. Pearson will give a report on the work of the Baptist Children's Home which cares for 80 children.

At the 7:30 Evening Evangelistic Hour, the Rev. and Mrs. Fred E. Stock will bring a missionary challenge and show slides of their work in Pakistan. The Stocks are on furlough from Pakistan where they are engaged in missionary work in the district of Sargodha.

Sargodha is an area of more than 6,000 square miles and has a population of approximately one million, of which less than two per cent are Christian.

The Stocks' program consists of extensive touring, holding meetings, conducting short Bible Schools, and visitation in the homes. Mrs. Stock is a missionary in her own right, being the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Lowrie Anderson who spent many years in the Sudan.

A nursery is furnished for all services, and an invitation is open to all at the First Baptist Church, 2118 Carson St.

Keystone Baptist to Open Revival Meetings Sunday

Keystone Baptist Church of Torrance will be engaged in a revival meeting from May 20 to June 3. Twenty-four churches, comprising the Long Beach Harbor Baptist Assn., are conducting revivals during this time.

This is a part of the Baptist Jubilee Advance program which is being promoted by Baptists all over the nation.

The Baptist Jubilee Advance is being observed in honor of the 150th anniversary of organized Baptist work in America and will climax on the anniversary date in 1964.

Keystone Baptist Church is one of the 33,000 Southern Baptist Churches participating in this program.

EVANGELIST for the revival is the Rev. George B. Leathers Sr., father of the local pastor. The Rev. M. Leathers is from Salem, Ill., where he is serving as a missionary-evangelist. He has had many years of experience as pastor and evangelist and preaches the Word of God in a plain but powerful way. He will be speaking each weekday evening at 7:30 and Sundays at 11 a.m. and 6:30 p.m., beginning with this Sunday morning's service.

Song leader for the revival is James R. Walker, who serves as music professor and choir director at the California Baptist College in Riverside. He will be directing the choir and congregation each service.

Everyone is invited to attend these revival services at Keystone Baptist Church, 435 W. 220th St., just east of Figueroa.

YOU GET THE BEST OF BOTH

GAS is the ideal fuel for such important household jobs as cooking, water heating, clothes drying, heating, and air conditioning. Modern Gas often costs only one-half as much, works up to four times as fast, is really flexible, controllable, and accurate.

ELECTRICITY is the perfect power for TV sets, lighting, vacuum cleaners and motors. With adequate wiring and plenty of outlets conveniently placed, you can use your lights and small appliances exactly where and when you want them.
