Hampton Players to Open Drama Friday

Take two little boys, ages between eight and nine. Mix well with a large shaggy black sheepdog named Jud, an egotistical artist, a very beautiful young woman, a struggling young man on his way up, add a few assorted characters to this mixture with sound, lighting and a beautiful set and you have the ingredients for the Hampton Players' next production.

The name of this fine comedy is, "The King of Hearts." Playing the title role is Ron Wright of Torrance. Known throughout the South Bay for his numerous portrayals in the Little Theater circuit, Wright brings to the roll of Larry Larkin, "The King of Hearts," a vast background of experience. Among his rolls in the theater are, "The Lady's Not For Burning" with the Hermosa Playhouse. With the Manhattan Players he did such plays as, "Teahouse of the August Moon," "Dirty Work At The Crossroads," "Harvey," and "Mr. Roberts." At the Chapel Theater the plays were, "Visit To A Small Planet," "Janus" and "Auntie Mame." "Inherit The Wind," "Dial M For Murder," "A View From The Bridge," "The Great Sebastianians," "Clutterbuck," and "Goodbye Charlie," were staged with the Hampton Theater.

DOING THE female lead in the play is Christine Bernard, (or Chris as she is known to every one at the theater). This is the first time Chris has attempted to do a high comedy play. But she brings to the role of Dunreath Henry a refreshing and vivacious quality. Other plays she has done at the Hampton Theater are, "Holiday For Lovers," "Clutterbuck," "The House of Bernarda Alba," "20th Century," and "The Time Of Your Life." For reservations call Catalina Music, FR 5-8018 between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. Other hours call DA 6-0861.
