An Earned Chance

Over the years, these dedicated men of Science have helped to elevate the status of the nation. They have been a shining example for all others to follow. It is time to reward them for their efforts.

The HERALD does not believe, however, that the need for perpetuating the city's name has been diminished. On the contrary, it appears the flurry of activity that has been going on for decades has increased. The men in the city have fought for their rights and their deductions.

Driving the city into wars has many objectionable policies. The time has come to fight for the rights of the people. The right to log-roll, and horse trading are normally associated with ward politicians. The need to tamper with it.

At this time, Torrance has seven members of a City Council elected by responsible to the city. The council has ignored or neglected a section of the city that is now in serious trouble. The situation is such that a neighbor John neighbour to form a formidable pressure group at city hall.

The system has worked well and is working well. We believe that city hall should provide the leadership and direction. We suggest that your sincerely interested in the quality of their municipal government rise up against the short-sighted, politically motivated ward system proposal.

We neither need nor want!

Opinions of Others

A lot of people nowadays make more than they can earn and do more than makes them (Pros.) Indep. -

Bake, our fellow printed as addends, are now printed as addenda as addends as addends.

If the great guns groan on the outskirts of the force, maybe you need to water the spot where you stand.

The fellow who usually gets up quicker than the one who sits down—Watervliet (Gt.) Grover Kepper

When it comes to medical care, who should the public believe—the professional men of medicine or the liberal politicians? We have these two words for you: bona fide or honest.

The answer should be obvious—health is a matter that should not be turned over to political witch doctors—Humphreys (N.)

Editors Oppose Federal Aid to Education Bills

The federal government should stay out of the school business. It is not the job of the government to micromanage education. It is the job of the government to provide a national standard for education.

The federal government should stay out of the school business. It is not the job of the government to micromanage education. It is the job of the government to provide a national standard for education. This would eliminate the overcrowding and underfunding that are currently plaguing our schools.

The federal government should stay out of the school business. It is not the job of the government to micromanage education. It is the job of the government to provide a national standard for education. This would eliminate the overcrowding and underfunding that are currently plaguing our schools.

The federal government should stay out of the school business. It is not the job of the government to micromanage education. It is the job of the government to provide a national standard for education. This would eliminate the overcrowding and underfunding that are currently plaguing our schools.

The federal government should stay out of the school business. It is not the job of the government to micromanage education. It is the job of the government to provide a national standard for education. This would eliminate the overcrowding and underfunding that are currently plaguing our schools.

The federal government should stay out of the school business. It is not the job of the government to micromanage education. It is the job of the government to provide a national standard for education. This would eliminate the overcrowding and underfunding that are currently plaguing our schools.

The federal government should stay out of the school business. It is not the job of the government to micromanage education. It is the job of the government to provide a national standard for education. This would eliminate the overcrowding and underfunding that are currently plaguing our schools.