Five to Be Confirmed

Friday evening Southwest Temple Beth Torah, 14725 S. Gramercy Pl., Gardena, will hold its 2nd annual Confirmation service for Roberta Sorashevsky, Pearl Bettman, Barbara Kosky, Warren Aziel and Robert Hartstein. These young people will present a program entitled "The Jewish Way of Life" for their families, friends and relatives. Church officiated with interment following in Green Hills Memorial Park.

After a greeting to the congregation by Leo Gans, president of the Temple, presentations will be made by Mrs. Arthur Pickus, sisterhood president and Dr. Meyer Lipson, Men's Club president. The awarding of the diplomas will be made by Leo Goldstein, Board of Education chairman. Rabbi Henry E. Kraus, who has instructed these Confirmants declares that, "Confirmation is a ceremony of consecration where our youngsters, having completed 11 years of religious education, (kindergarten to 10th grade) vow to uphold the principles and ideals of Judaism." The Confirmation services are held in conjunction with the holiday of Shavuoth, June 8 and 9, which celebrates the acceptance by the Jews of the Holy Torah.
