Small Businessmen Need Help, Bruinsma Claims

"Ways and means to develop a strong small business community must be found immediately, and it is the job of the federal government to pave the way," Ted Bruinsma, Republican nominee for Congress in the 17th District, said recently. Bruinsma was introduced to a meeting of 25 businessmen in WALTERIA by Clint Glenn, area businessman. Bruinsma charged that "small businessmen are the forgotten segment, yet our country grew strong due to the pioneer spirit of this group."

"However," Bruinsma stated, "10 per cent more small businesses failed in 1961 than failed in 1960."

"Small businesses need financial assistance; they need tax assistance; they need relief from harassment and red tape of government regulation; and they need relief from monopoly of large combines," Bruinsma said.

In his introduction Glenn said that "Bruinsma's experience in business and law over many years qualify him for the responsible post of Congressman."

"Ted is the most outstanding Congressional candidate to 'come down the pike' in many years," Glenn said.

Cub Scout Pack 730-C

The May meeting of Cub Scout Pack 730-C was held recently in Casimir School Cafeteria.

The opening flag salute was conducted by Cubs of Den 2, led by Mrs. Capuano. Cubmaster Art Blanco directed a "Get-acquainted Guessing Game" in which parents read riddles and the audience had to guess which type of bird the phrases described. Mrs. Higley's den presented a skit featuring a "Barbershop quartet."

Steven Bebeck was inducted into the pack as a new Bobcat. Cubmaster Blanco demonstrated to Mr. and Mrs. Bebeck and to the whole pack the necessity of the complete family support in Cubbing.

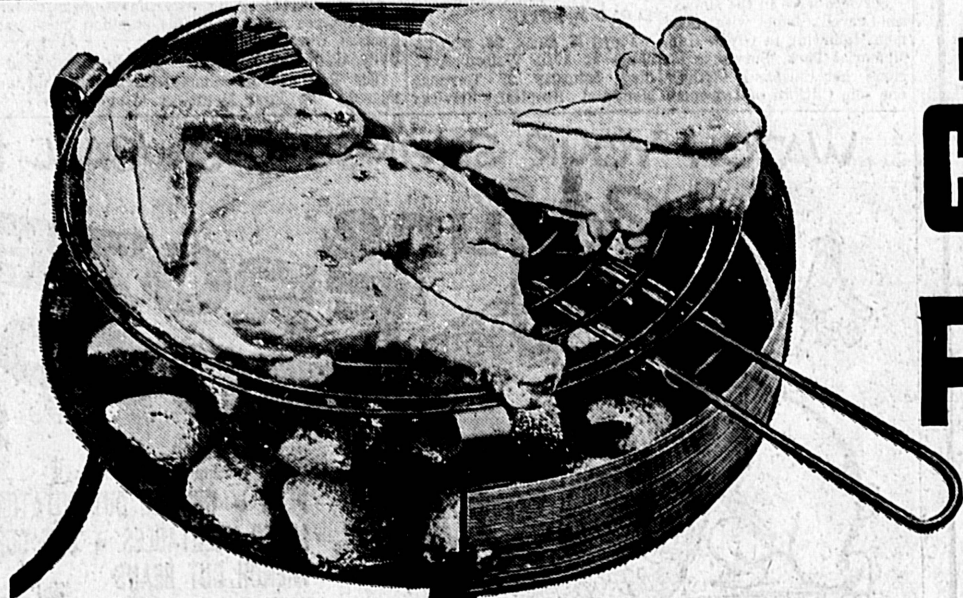

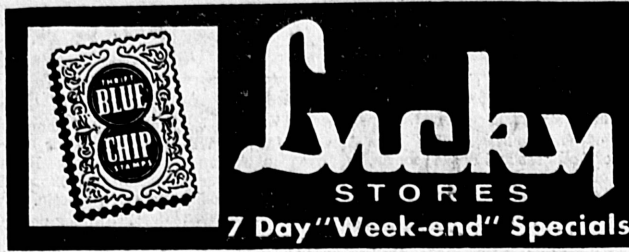

THE CHARTER was presented to the pack leaders by Mr. Silverman and registration cards presented to pack officials and Cub Scouts. "Dad and Me" badges were awarded to boys with dads who had attended the fathers' committee meeting.

The following badges and awards were presented: a Wolf Badge was earned by Gary Fuller, Charles Hunt was awarded a Lion Badge and a Gold Arrow. John Kuta received two Silver Arrows in the Wolf Rank, a one year pin and a one year perfect attendance pin. Mike Keberlein received a two-year perfect attendance pin.

IN A SPECIAL ceremony conducted by Webelov Leader Ray Lutz, Charles Hunt was received into the Webelov Den and presented with a Boy Scout Handbook.

Announcements concerning the May outing to the Kellogg Horse Ranch at Pomona and the June Pack Meeting were given.
