Nativity Mothers Club Raises Funds to Help Needy Families

Nativity mothers with art 3/30 The Nativity Parish Mothers Club through recent projects raised $625 to provide a home for a needy family in Bogota, Colombia.
 Darryl Hickman of television and movie fame, was guest speaker several weeks ago during a club meeting and was the promoter of these projects. Hickman awakened the compassion of all who heard him tell about a small community in Bogota, Colombia.

A priest, Fr. Rafael Garcia Herreros, has spent the last 10 years of his life trying to rebuild the lives of the very needy by helping them to build a community where they may be self supporting. Since 1956 he has built two factories, 300 homes (for over 2,000 people) a school, and a co-operative grocery store. He wants only the necessities for his people, a sense of dignity and a chance to work and to better themselves.

 Hickman firmly believes Fr. Herreros has the answer to much of the world's problems in fighting Communism, and so inspired the members of the Mothers Club that in just a few short weeks they raised the $625 needed to house one family.

The check was presented to Hickman by Mrs. James Carlin, president of the Nativity Mothers Club, at a recent meeting to the Nativity Chi-Rho Club.

The Chi-Rho Club under the direction of Robert Sluder, is planning in some way to start another fund to build a home for one more needy family in Bogota.

HELP FOR NEEDY . . . Mrs. James F. Carlin of the Nativity Parish Mothers Club presents check for $625 to Darryl Hickman of television and movie fame, to assist a program of helping the needy families of Bogota, Colombia. Looking on is the Rev. William D. Appling.
