On Wrong Track

Editor, The Torrance Herald: The so-called "Conservatives" have been on the wrong track for a long time. They are searching for a leader; a hero to lead them through troubled times. It apparently has not struck them that politicians are not good leaders as they have a tendency to represent their own interests. represent their own interests rather than the interests of the electorate. Some day, before it's too late I hope, the Conservatives may awaken and realize that they can only govern themselves by means of initiative. If they wait for their politicians to put issues on the ballot by means of referendum or by voting correctly on issues in the legislature, they will wait in vain, and eventually lose even the right of initiative. initiative.

Regardless of what all the leftists say, the root of all evil is taxation and nothing more.

If the taxes are reduced to the bare minimum or elimi-nated, then all the socialists schemes will automatically fall apart for lack of funds. The only function of gov-ernment is to provide courts of law, legislature and a po-lice force for the protection of the individual's rights and property. Any time the government, by means of laws, attempts to levy taxes against one's rights (private enterone's rights (private enterprise) and property, then the government becomes not a servant, but a tyrant.

So now I say to the Conservatives, the choice is yours: freedom under self-rule by means of petitions and initiative, or socialism under represent us but rather their own interests. own interests.

The time to make the choice is now, as time is quickly running out. At the present rate of government plunder, we have less than two years.

Wants Districts

Editor, Torrance Herald:

I don't suppose this letter will be printed in your paper, but at least I will know you have my opinion of your edi-torials concerning council-matic districts.

I find the reaction of most people I have discussed this with are the same as mine, with are the same as mine, who are you to speak for the people? Why are you afraid for the people to vote on the issue? (As your editorials seem to indicate.)

If our present system is the best, then why does everything have to be accomplished.

best, then why does every-thing have to be accomplished by petitions and pressure? Our surrounding cities have councilmatic districts, they seem to do very well. You, as an editor, should keep an open mind and print the pro and con, then let the peo-ple decide what they feel is right. By your editorials, you have certainly convinced me that councilmanic districts are a must. People will not be dictated to, be it a new-paper editor or what have
