Mothers who can't wait to push their daughters into the boy-girl ratrace.

Dear Ann Landers: I am engaged to a man whose first wife died four years ago. She was a lovely person and a good friend of mine.

Last night Ben asked me if I would like her set of rings. They are beautiful and I always admired them so much when she wore them.

To be frank about it, I'd love to have the rings but I am afraid others will remember them as having belonged to his first wife, as I do. This might make me feel uncomfortable.

Am I being foolish? Please help me decide.—WILMA

Dear Wilma: Your indecision suggests you would not be comfortable wearing the rings which belonged to your husband's first wife. Why not have the rings reset in another mounting? They will then seem new to you and to others as well.

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.
 Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed, envelope.

Dorothy Sible Becomes Mrs. Clabusch June 24

Miss Dorothy Sible, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sible, 4034 W. 182nd St. walked down the aisle of the Ascension Lutheran Church on the arm of her father at six o'clock on Sunday, June 24, to become the bride of Kenneth Clabusch of East Peoria, Ill. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clabusch of Lansing, Mich.

Heading the bridal entourage was Miss Jimmie Ruth Lawrence, maid of honor. She wore a floor length yellow nylon over taffeta gown and carried yellow carnations.

Next in line were the bridesmaids Misses Linda Armstrong and Shari Bartella. Wearing full skirted orchid nylon over taffeta dresses, each carried a bouquet of orchid carnations. Jane Husted, in white nylon, was the flower girl.

Then came the bride in her wedding gown of Chantilly lace over nylon net fashioned with a chapel train. The lace edged bridal veil cascaded from a pearl princess crown and the bride carried a bouquet of butterfly orchids and stephanotis atop a white Bible.

Owings-Brown Names Are Linked in Baptist Service

Baskets of white carnations and gladioli against standards holding tall candles, decorated the chancel of the Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church on June 21 at 8 p.m. for the wedding uniting Miss Evelyn Owings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne T. Owings, Sr., 2748 Loftyview Dr., Torrance, and Maynard Brown. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Brown of Powell, Wyo.

The bridegroom asked Brady Jones to serve as best man and Rodger Reinig, Jerry Coleman, Wayne Owings Jr., Billy McKee and Charles Thorne were ushers.

A reception was held at the church and Mrs. Lloyd Lankburg registered the guests. Assisting were Meses. Charles Meeks, Ralph Blaco, Glenn Rendleman and Leroy Pennington.

The couple is now at home at Mira Loma after a Big Bear honeymoon.

The bride, a graduate of South High school, is a student at California Baptist College in Riverside.

Her husband, who received his early education in Wyoming, is also a student at California Baptist.

Marc Ellen Pond was flower girl and Timothy Newman was ring bearer.

Then came the bride on

Minnesota Trip

Mr. and Mrs. William Kerr, Robert, Daniel, James and Ruth, 3110 Torrance Blvd., have returned from a four-weeks' vacation in Minnesota. They visited Mrs. Kerr's mother at Felton, Minn., and made a side trip to Duluth and into the northern part of the state.

Xi Zeta Lambda Gives Check to Main Charity

Mrs. Les Mayfield, president of Xi Zeta Lambda, Beta Sigma Phi, and Mrs. Bert Whited, past president and chairman of a special ways and means project on behalf of the Garden Valley Association for Mentally Retarded Children presented a check for two monthly scholarships to Harry Stiers on July 5.

Members of Xi Zeta Lambda are keeping busy through the summer. The June social was a cocktail party, pot-luck dinner and card party at the home of the chapter social chairman, Mrs. Raymond Milhouse, on June 23 in Lawndale. The affair was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stahl, who are moving to Redlands, and Mr. and Mrs. William Schroeder, who will be touring Mexico and South America for the next year and a half. Meses. Stahl and Schroeder were presented with beautiful black and gold Beta Sigma Phi crests as farewell gifts. Promotion of these crests is a special project of Xi Zeta Lambda. Other special guests at the party included Mrs. Foster, president of South Bay Area Council, and her husband, Andrew; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Echelberger; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Truscott and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zoller from Rho Xi chapter and Mrs. Milton Ventress from Mu Omicron chapter.

Mrs. Whited, civil defense chairman from the Southern California Council of Beta Sigma Phi, attended the annual conference of the Southern California Civil Defense and Disaster Association in Oxnard on June 30. Mrs. Whited also spoke on Civil Defense at the regular meeting of Lambda Pi Chapter in Van Nuys on June 25.

A theater party for Xi Zeta Lambda has been planned for July. A regular chapter meeting was held at the San Pedro home of Mrs. Don Dawson on July 10.

Secretaries Will Tour New Airport

What the boss goes through after his secretary has made flight reservations for his travels will be seen first hand by the secretaries of the South Bay Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) when they tour the new International Airport facilities on July 19.

Before their regular monthly dinner meeting to be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, July 19, at Robb's Restaurant, the members and guests of South Bay Chapter will make an inspection of the airport ticketing and boarding procedures, view the loading bridges, aircraft fueling and baggage claim area, and will board a plane to look over the latest in air travel transportation.

All secretaries in the South Bay area are welcome to join in the tour. Reservations may be made by calling Herschel Menager.

Mrs. Gene Beavers of Torrance is president of the chapter.

A Birthday Celebration

Margaret Warde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland V. Warde, 2712 W. Carson St., celebrated her 12th birthday with a party last Thursday evening.

The invited guests went bowling and then returned to Margaret's home for a patio supper.

Attending were Barbara Bentwood, Susan Bundy, Phyllis Nation, Irene Shinoda, and Norma Tracy.

In August, Margaret is flying by jetliner to Hawaii where she will spend three weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. A. M. Klum in Honolulu.
