Pastor to Speak On Prayer Ruling

Reacting to the recent Supreme Court decision regarding prayers in public schools, the Rev. H. Earl Kuester will speak on "This Nation Under God" at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday at the Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd.

The Rev. Mr. Kuester will speak on the "Father Heart of God" at the 7 p.m. Vesper Service Sunday.

ON SUNDAY, the high school college youth Evening Fellowship will begin a three-week program on the value of the Bible in daily living.

Vernon Rollins and Sandy Rayes are co-chairmen of the first presentation in the series which will take the form of a courtroom battle. Also participating will be Greg Spencer, Janice Elwell, Don Smith, and Linda Watwood.

REGISTRATION for Vacation Church School will be held Monday in the church of-

In TORRANCE Everyone Reads the HERALD

Workers include Mrs. Pat Mohn and Mrs. Virginia Gray, co-principals; superintendents Kathleen Hunter, kindergarten; Eleanor Simpson, primary; Rita Frink, middle, and Virginia McCurdy, juniors.

Preschool Program to Open Today

Group experiences for preschool-age children will be offered by the Torrance Recreation Department today through Aug. 23 at Walteria Park.

Children will participate in games, crafts, singing, storytelling, and group activity.

Parents will be asked to assist the boys and girls who must be between four and six and not yet in school.

Sessions one hour long will be held each Thursday, beginning today. There will be no cost. Parents may register at the park at 10:30 a.m. today.

Adventists Planning To Attend Sessions

Plans are being formulated today at the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., for participation by members and Pastor Glenn L. Goffar in the church's 49th quadrennial World Conference in San Francisco on July 24.

In announcing the event to his church this week, Pastor Goffar said the world conference will draw 20,000 Adventists, including more than 1,000 official delegates from 100 countries, to elect top world officials to decide on all major policies of the church.

LEAVING Torrance on July 23, Pastor Goffar will attend a world ministerial convention in San Francisco which precedes the world session.

"Our local church members are looking forward to this great convention because, in addition to its many business aspects, it will bring added spiritual direction to their lives through the many outstanding addresses to be presented there by world church leaders," Pastor Goffar said.

DR. AND MRS. C. F. Clark from the Congo will bring mission experiences to the Torrance church this week. Tomorrow evening at 7:30, they will show motion pictures from South Africa.

Church Youth Continuing With Revival

Continuing through the Sunday services will be the Youth-Led revival at Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church in Lomita.

The youth team leading the revival includes A. L. McDaniels Jr., an evangelist from Fresno; Walt Crabtree, leading the singing, and Joyce Beaird, pianist.

Youth of the church are serving on all the committees that have planned and promoted the revival.

Services begin at 7:30 each evening.

"It is a thrill to listen to the enthusiasm of young people who are anxious for everyone to know the joy of serving the Lord," according to Pastor Robert A. Wells.

The Lomita church has also announced plans for its annual vacation Bible school from July 23 to Aug. 1. The school is for children from 4 to 16.

3-Month-Old Infant Dies

Three-month-old Charles Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hart of 905 Krumblum Ave., was dead on arrival at Little Company of Mary Hospital about 5 a.m. Monday. Police said the child, who had been in ill health, died of accidental asphyxiation.

7,500 to Attend Sessions

Over 7,500 delegates from Southland congregations are expected to attend a Jehovah's Witness convention in the Orange County Fairground from Aug. 10-12.

L. E. Olliff, presiding minister of the Torrance congregation, said 20 departments will provide all convention needs including an orchestra, a complete cafeteria and a well-staffed first aid department.

He stated that all work will be done by Jehovah Witnesses on a voluntary basis.

Recently, a meeting was held in Costa Mesa where 104 presiding ministers and key personnel were present to discuss preliminary planning and coordination of convention activities.

Shield Hajvajian, traveling representative of the Watchtower Society, who has been named as convention manager, presided at the meeting.

Lesson-Sermon Theme Sunday On Freedom

Freedom from enslavement of every kind is available through spiritual understanding of the mighty power of God.

This is the theme of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God" which will be presented at Christian Science churches Sunday.

Bible readings will include this verse from Revelation: "We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and was, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee great power, and hast reigned."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, this selection will be read: "The enslavement of man is not legitimate. It will cease when man enters into his heritage of freedom, his God-given dominion over the material senses. Mortals will some day assert their freedom in the name of Almighty God."

Lay School Attended by Local Man

Another precedent has been set at the California Lutheran College, with the completion of the pilot project of the Lay School of Theology. The school is under the direction of Dr. Loren Halvorsen, assistant director of the Board of College Education of the American Lutheran Church.

One Torrance man, John Schwartz, 1751 Iris Ave., attended the project sessions. The pilot project involved a study of the general movement in Christendom to carry out depth studies of Christian beliefs.

Many Southland residents were involved in the pilot project.

Schwartz is a member of the First Lutheran Church of Torrance.

Coyle Selected by Insurance Agency

Life insurance man Martin T. Coyle, 2422 W. 180th Place, has joined Mutual of New York as assistant manager in Torrance for the company's Inglewood agency.

He will assist Agency Manager Joseph W. Keava in the supervision of sales and service to policyholders and in the

Deadline For Fair Trip Near

Torrance residents planning to attend the Seattle World's Fair have only one day to take advantage of a unique housing plan offered by the local YMCA.

The Torrance Y has secured the facilities of a YMCA in Seattle for families on a limited budget to use as headquarters while attending the fair.

Families in Seattle from Aug. 17 to 19 can "camp out" in the YMCA, using the kitchen, restrooms, showers, and swimming pool. They will sleep in the craft shop on air mattresses or cots brought along for the event.

Only a token charge will be made to cover the custodial and life guard costs.

In order to complete plans, families must indicate a definite interest by 5 p.m. tomorrow in order to hold a spot in Seattle.

Families interested may contact the Torrance Family YMCA at FA 8-1272.
