Public Lands

The Department of the Interior will offer 2,600 acres of public lands in San Diego county for sale at a public auction July 24.

The auction will be held at the Riverside land office. Minimum bids on the 28 parcels for sale will be equal to the appraised value of the parcels. Auction time is 10 a.m.

Garden Checklist

1. Shear hedges frequently. It's better for the hedge and far easier for the gardener.
2. Chrysanthemums should have their final cutting back about now. After this, let them grow on toward fall bloom.
3. Many vegetables, including snap beans and corn, can be planted still—or again.
4. Plant container grown Fuchsias and Tuberous Begonias for quick color in your shade garden.
5. Stake and tie tomato plants to keep the harvest up off the ground and within easy reach.
