Torrance Surge Capsizes Palos Verdes Horsehiders

Waiting until the fifth frame to get their attack going, the Torrance American Legion Nine whipped Palos Verdes, 9-1, to move a step closer to a bid in the Long Beach Tournament.

The two teams tied for third place in the local Legion league, and the three game play-off determines who will get to play in the Aug. 11-26 tournament.

Yesterday, the two clubs met again, and should Palos Verdes win, they will meet Tuesday at the University of Southern California diamond in the final conteset.

It was a pitcher's battle until the fifth frame when the local nine broke matters wide open.

Palos Verdes pushed its lone tally across in the second round but was soon buried by the Torrance run-ava-

Eric Spelman started things out with a walk. Dan Ely struck out, but Jim Harris earned passage to first when he was hit by a pitch. Dick Buchanan singled Spelman in with the local's first run and then stole second.

Steve Ramirez lofted a sacrifice fly as Harris came across and Buchanan moved to third and came home on a balk. Jim Berry was safe on an error by the third baseman

With Berry on first Glenn Jones walked. A balk moved the two men up a base. Berry then stole third and came barreling home on the wild pitch to end the inning.

From then on it was all downhill. 'orrance shoved across three runs in the sixth and finished tallying when Richard Rosato hit a pinch home run in the seventh frame.

Spelman provided the mound heroics for the winners going six innings. He whiffed 12 men and allowed only one

Ray Allen came in to relieve Spelman for the final round and preserved

Berry was the hitting star driving in three runs on three safeties. Torrance collected but seven hits and the losers could reach base by way of the stick only five times.

Independent of the outcome of the series, the local Legion horsehiders will oppose Buena Park in the opening round of the Anaheim Tournament at 7 Wednesday night in La Palma Stadium.

Should Torrance take the play-off from Palos Verdes, it will encounter Bell Gardens in the Long Beach

DENTS SCOREBOARD . . . Putting the first Torrance American Legion tally on the scoreboard against Palos Verdes, hurler Eric Spellman crosses dish on single by Dick Buchanan. The local nine wound up with a 9-1 victory as Spellman twirled six innings, striking out 12 men and giving up only one free pass. Torrance will meet Buena Park in the Anaheim Tournament at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the La Palma Stadium.

Three Top Field In Ascot Feature

Triple trouble from national TT champ Dick Dorresteyn, Jack O'Brien, and Dick Hammer is expected to cap tonight's steeplechase feature at Ascot Park. A record field of 122 riders will compete in the motorcycle steeplechase. Of the trio, Dorresteyn is the best bet for a win. He captured the gruelling 100-lapper

Tappas Win Doubleheader With Final-Inning Rallies

Tough in the clutch, the Tappa Keggas pulled out both ends of a practice doubleheader Friday night with final inning surges to boost their season record to 32-1.

Gardena came within a hair-breadth of pulling its second upset of the year against the Keggas. The Bulls finally succumbed by a 4-3 count, but it took an error in the bottom of the sixth and final frame before the locals could pull out the win.

Chuck Schoendienst was the hero for the Keggas, slamming a two-out double to bring in a pair of runs and win the contest

CHUCK RYAN boosted his season pitching mark to a phe-nomenal 24-0 as he threw a three-hitter for the winners.

Schoendienst was responsible for three of the Kegga runs. All told, the Tappas got only six hits and Schoendienst belted two of them.

STILL NOT down and out, Gardena tied the score in the fifth. But, with a man on second in the final inning, the Bulls' outfielder dropped a recutine fly, and the Kegs were home free.

Bryan Stephens gave up eight hits in recording his fifth win of the year. His lone loss came at the hands of Gardena in West Coast Slo-Pitch League play when it broke a 53-game winning streak.

THE WINNERS slammed seven hits with Dick Stutz collecting a pair of safeties, Stutz slapped a single and a double. Eddie Williams drove in a pair of runs for the Keggas and A Calce brought in a tally.

Tony Larson belted two safeties for the losers.
