

ed ol·

n-

be n e m.

0 0

0 0

> • .

0 10

'Some Women Take Him at His Word . . .

Dear Ann Landers: I am in sympathy with "In Sympa-thy." She was the long-suffering physician's wife who wrote to say her husband had to give up going to church on Sunday because he was con-stantly pestered by people who wanted curbstone opin-ions and free medical advice. A dcar friend of mine solved the problem in this manner:

The town bore who was notorious for chiseling every-thing and anything, collared this good-natured doctor at a this good-natured doctor at a cocktail party. She pulled him into a corner and began to describe in detail the shoot-ing pains in her hip and leg. The doctor looked her square in the eye, and in his most professional way said, "Undress." That did it. The woman has Aever gone near him since.—

Aever gone near him since.— WANDERING TEXAN

Dear Texan: I'm glad it worked for him but I would not recommend this tech-nique for everyone. S on e women would be only too happy to take him at his word!

Dear Ann Landers: What do you think about an adult man getting up at a party and doing an imitation of the President of the United States?

He messed up his hair and pinned his suitcoat in the back so it would fit tight. He began to speak with exag-gerated Eastern accent, emphasizing such words as Dem-ocratic "pah-ty," "Cuber" and "Afriker." Everyone was in

Entertained

pito and Leland Dean and their children. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dean

Ojai Vacation

Ala.

stitches. I felt it was in bad taste I felt it was in bad taste and not the least bit funny. After all, the presidency is the highest office of the land, and every American should have respect for the office. When I didn't laugh along with the others I was told that I lack a sense of humor. What's your opinion? --D. L.

D. L. Dear D. L.: One of the hall-marks of a healthy democ-racy is that we can poke fun at the highest office of the land and not be afraid of a knock at the door. The Roosevelts were prob-ably the most imitated Amer-icans of the century because icans of the century because they were distinctive individuals. It is well known that the Roosevelts were vastly amus-ed by these imitations. I'm sure President Kennedy would laugh loudest if he could see some of the imita-tions of himself.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a Dear Ann Landers: I'm a young man who needs an un-biased opinion. The girl I'm in love with has some won-derful qualities. She wants to get married but I'm afraid of her suspicious nature. Ruth came from a broken home. Her father cheated on her mother left and right. They were divorced. Her stepfather was a chaser, too. You can understand why she

You can understand why she doesn't have much faith in men.

I'm not the chasing kind and have not even looked sideways at another girl since we became pinned last year. Yet she doesn't take my word for anything. She

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

POLYNESIAN WELCOME Diana Provisionals were feted at a Polynesian luau Mon-POLYNESIAN WELCOME . . . Diana Provisionals were feled at a Polynesian luau Mon-day evening at the Reynolds Gorsuch home in Hollywood Riviera. An orientation pro-gram followed the dinner served in an island atmosphere. Wearing colorful muumuus, the party committee puts final touches on the decor. They are from left, Mmes. Gor-such, chairman, Sheldon Goldenson and Vincent Rothemich, co-chairmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dean en-tertained at a dinner party Friday evening at their home, 2564 Torrance Blvd., honor-ing two visitors, Mrs. W. H. Speck of Brazil, who is spend-ing three weeks here, and Mrs. Dean's sister, Mrs. Al-bert Skelding of Birmingham, Ala Program of Orientation

Provisionals Feted At Polynesian Luau Family members attending the party were Messrs. and Mmes. Jack Dean, John Aga-des, as her co-chairmen for The South Seas theme the event.

Diana Provisionals were honored at a Polynesian luau Monday evening at the Reynolds Gorsuch home in Hollywood Rivera. Hostesses were board members of the Redondo Beach Dianas, Federated Junior Woman's Club, Marina District.

Mrs. Eric Lindgreen, Tor-rance, membership chairman chose Mrs. Sheldon Goldenson, Torrance, and Mrs. Vin-cent Rothemich, Palos Ver-

For Son's Marriage

marriage of their son, Gerald F. Roberts, to Miss Dolores Pippi, daughter of Mr. and Al Roberts will be his brother's best man, and Kay will be in the wedding party as

En route they will visit Mrs. Roberts' sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Potter, and her mother, Mrs. F. B. Forsyth, all of Eugene,

Plan Party

Mr. and Mrs. Caesar Arcq and son, Armand, 129 Paseo de Delicias, will entertain at a party at their home Satur-day evening honoring Miss Trudi Lonirgren. Sildes and moving of the NATIONAL RECOGNITION . . . Mrs. John B. Kuska of Lomita, whose preservation o her American heritage, has brought her national recognition, poses with two of her most prized possessions. At the right is her Alumni Achievement award presented her at the Fort Hayes Kansas State College commencement in May and, left, is a picture of Mrs. John Kennedy and children enclosed with Mrs Kennedy's personal congratulations. Mrs. Kuska has collected over 20,000 items affiliated with the early history of America.

Bouquets from Alma Mater, First Lady

Mrs. John Kuska Wins Acclaim For Contributions to Culture

A special congratulation from the First Lady of the Land, Mrs. Jacqueline Ken-nedy, and a huge scrapbook filled with cards from many friends, mark a long-to-be-remembered occasion for Mrs. J. B. Kuska, 24201 Wal-nut.St Lomita nut St., Lomita. The local woman, who with her husband, owns and cperates a museum of Amer-ican treasures in Lomita, was honored by her alma mater, Fort Hays Kansas State College, at its spring com-mencement when she re-ceived an Alumni Achievement Award. On the certifi-cate to Nellie McVey Kuska, class of 1910, the Ruska, class of 1910, the alumni president stated "Fort Hayes Kansas State College presents this Alumni Achieve-ment Award in recognition of your unique contribution to the largest privately owned collection in America. Treasures of by-gone generations, the preservation of America's cultural heritage and your record as a wife and mother over a period of years." Mrs. Kuska was the Kansas "Mother of the Year" in 1952. While the local couple were this collection as well as an array of 1,000 dolls. She has not only collected her treas-ures but has studied their history and contributions to culture. in Kansas for her to receive her award from the college, Mrs. Kuska spoke on radio, Four years ago, the Kuskas moved their 17-ton collection to Lomita where they maintelevision and to two Rotary clubs, describing her collec-tion and its history. tain regular hours for tours and lectures.

tion and its history. Mrs. Kuska received her bachelor of arts degree from the University of Illinois. She and her husband settled in Colby, Kansas, where he was an agronomist at the experi-ment station. While collecting was im-portant to Mrs. Kuska, her family always came first. She went to Lincoln, Neb., to keep house for her three sons while they attended the Uni-versity of Nebraska. She moved to California to be near them Over a period of 40 years, she has collected 20,000 items, near them.

in which the history o

America unfolds, make up

Mrs. Kuska, whose collec-tion of treasures has brought her prominence in cultural her prominence in cultural circles throughout the South-land, has gained the satisfac-tion of seeing her sons make their marks of distinction. The youngest, George, design-ed the memorial carrillon on the Nebraska campus and is a prominent design engineer a prominent design engineer. The other two, Norman and Milton, have gained national recognition as engineers with North American Aviation and Northrop Aviation.

with special emphasis on civ-ic and philanthropic contri-butions and its role in federation, local, state and national. Each officer was intro-duced and gave a resume of her duties. Mrs. D. J. Gleaa bridesmaid.

(Continued on Page 14) Oregon

Mrs. Forsyth will return to Torrance for a visit with the Roberts family.

To Oregon

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Roberts of Torrance, accompanied by their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Roberts of Avalon, and Miss Kay Roberts will be journeying Newlywed Baumgardners to Portland, Oregon., for the

On Trip to North Dakota Mrs. Peter Pippi of Portland.

Vine Ave.

The couple was married in a three o'clock ceremony at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in San Pedro with Rev. D. L.

in San Fedro with Rev. D. L. Royer officiating. Mr. Van Huss gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a sheath gown of French silk with a bouffant overskirt of lace. Her illusion yell was secured by a pearl veil was secured by a pearl tiara and she carried a bo-quet of white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley atop a

(Continued on Page 14)

Hadassah Membership Party Aug. 16

South Bay Chapter of Ha-dassah will entertain at a membership party at the home of Mrs. Jack Mishlove, 72102 Whitestone Bd. Pales 27103 Whitestone Rd., Palos Verdes, on Thursday, Aug. 16 at 1 p.m. All current chapter members are being invited to at-tend and to bring a prospective member.

All area women interested in learning about Hadassah or who have been members in other areas before moving to the South Bay are invited to the South Bay are invited to attend. Further information may be secured by calling Mrs. Jack Mishlove, PLAN MEMBERSHIP TEA... At a poolside dessert meeting at the Frank Sciarrotta home on 227th Street, Wednesday, Torrance Chapter, City of Hope, set the date, Sept. 20, for its annual membership tea. The affair will be held in the Crystal Room at the Palms from 1:30 until 3:30 p.m., announced Mrs. Bert Lynn, president. In charge of the event are from left, Mmes. William Luzan, co-chairman, Fred Ball Jr., ways and means chairman, and Morrie Brahin, tea chairman.

Slides and movies of the World's Fair and Mardi Gras will be shown.

Invited guests are Gladys Tremaine, Lillian Cook, Paday Lacey, James Pond, Don McNamee, and Miss Lonir-gren's sister, Lola Leahy.

Home From Six Weeks Vacation

Mrs. John Tweedy and sons, Jack and Mike, 1325 Arling-ton Ave., returned last Fri-day from a six weeks vacation. By train, they went to Naperville, Ill., near Chicago, Mrs. Tweedy's hometown, where they visited Mrs. Tweedy's mother, relatives and old friends.

On July 30, they boarded the Great Northern in Chi-cago and made the trip by the northern route near the Canadian border to Seattle, where they attended the World's Fair before returning to California.

mite prayer book. Miss Helen Olliff was the maid of honor and brides-maids were Mmes. Carl Barnes and Clyde Baumgardner. They wore aqua sheaths with overskirts and carried matching bouquets. Clyde A. Baumgardner was heat man best man.

best man. A reception was held for the 200 guests in the church hall. Willie Ryke was in charge of the guest book. The bride was graduated from Mira Costa High and E1 Camino College. Her hus-band, educated in North Da-

Return Home

Mr, and Mrs, E, A, Miles, 2303 Andreo, returned to their home Sunday after spending 15 days in Costa Mesa, where they stayed with their grandchildren, while their daughter and her hus-band, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hutcherson vacationed in Hawaii. Hawaii,

MRS. CARROLL BAUMGARDNER ... Former Olga Van Huss (Portrait by Seeman)