Garden Checklist

1. Watch for mildew on Tuberous Begonias. Spray at the first sign of the powdery spores.

Take long stems when cutting roses to renew the bushes. Feed roses if it's been three weeks or a month since last time. 3. All container-grown shrubs and trees may be set out in August. It is a good month, especially, to

4. If you need a handsome parkway covering, try Aaron's Beard (Hypericum calyinum). In summer it's a mass of bright yellow bloom.

5. Quick color can be found this month from the Lantanas. Give them the sunniest exposure you have
