

Moose Lodge Plans Dinner Saturday

Fun is the order of the day for Saturday at the Torrance Moose Home. The local family fraternity plans the annual Slippery Gulch Night, with events beginning at 6 p.m.

Highlights of the evening include judging of the beard contest, costumes, and sessions of the kangaroo court. Games, fortune telling, and dancing are also planned.

The menu will feature a chuck wagon style dinner.

The Moose home is located at 1744 W. Carson St.

Methodist Group Plans Bazaar Soon

Hot dogs and homemade candies, pony rides, games—these are but a few of the traditional bazaar fun in store for families at the annual carnival of Harbor City-Lomita Methodist Church.

Church grounds at 2504 Cayuga Ave., Lomita, will be bustling with excitement on Friday, Aug. 31, when various organizations within the church unite to sponsor a variety of entertainment and refreshments.

Booths offering a potpourri of goods from handwork to white elephant articles and greeting cards, cotton candy, pony rides, dart and toss games will be operated by church members throughout the church grounds, patio, and classrooms.

Overseeing plans is Terry Crokrey, assisted by Art Anderson.

Reason for the carnival is two-fold, they say: first, just for fun; secondly, to raise funds to be applied on the second mortgage of the church's newly acquired parsonage.

Seven Tots Win Awards In Contest

Torrance winners in the annual Alondra Park Baby Show were announced Friday. Seven Torrance entrants walked off with awards in the annual event.

Howard Moss, 926 Maple Ave., won second place for the blondest hair. Other winners in the various categories were Lorrie Little, 17205 Crenshaw Blvd., first place for bluest eyes, and Andrew Kibler, 4086 Newton St., second place for bluest eyes.

John Brennan, 18409 Crenshaw Blvd., won an honorable mention award for the darkest eyes, and Deborah Marshall Pfau, 5106 Halison, won second place for the best smile.

Third place for the darkest hair went to Tammy Simmons, 2260 W. 230th St., and Tracy Johns, 419 E. Desford, was named a princess.

Richard W. Michna, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin J. Michna of 18911 Cranbrook, Torrance, is serving aboard the refrigerated stores ship USS Pictor which departed San Francisco recently for a tour of duty with the powerful Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

The Pictor is designed to store, refrigerate, transport and issue, either underway or in port, perishable food supplies for operating forces and units in any of or all deployment areas of the Western Pacific.
