Methodist
Women Hear
Deaconess

Women's Society of Christian Service of the Torrance First Methodist Church held a tea at the church on Thursday, afternoon, Aug. 9, in the honor of Mary Lou Hutchison.

Miss Hutchison, a lifetime member of the Church has been a Christian Service Worker for a number of years. She served as a U.S. 2 at Bethlehem Center in Spartanburg, South Carolina, which meant serving two years of her Christian work in the United States under the Women's Division of the Methodist Church. Her next two years were spent teaching music at Harwood Girls School in Albuquerque, as a full-time employee of the Church. Last year Miss Hutchison returned to Scarritt College in Nashville, Tenn. for graduate work on her master's degree in Social Group Work.

In January, 1963, Miss Hutchison will be commissioned a Deaconess of the Methodist Church at Cincinnati, O. Among those in attendance to hear Miss Hutchison speak on the topic "What is a Deaconess?" were members of the Girls World Friendship Group of Wayside Methodist Church in Lomita, and Mrs. William Speck, a past president of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Torrance Church, now residing in Jundiai, Brazil.

A bouquet of pink amaryllis was presented to Miss Hutchison by Mrs. Russell Paxton, president of the Women's Society of Christian Service.

SELECTING FASHIONS . . . In preparation for their fashion show to be held Aug. 28 at 7:30 p.m. at Center Avenue School, Manhattan Beach, these members of the South Bay Educational Office Employees Assn. look over the fashions in a Torrance shop. At the left, Miss Barbara Corley of Torrance, shows a cashmere sweater with mink collar and rhinestone clip, to Mrs. Daphne Jones and Mrs. David Baggett, seated.

At Confab
On Missions

Mrs. Lois Balsley and Mrs. James McClure have returned from San Diego where they attended the Southern California-Arizona conference of the Schools of Missions for the Methodist Church. The conference was held on the campus at the California Western University.

Mrs. McClure attended the classes taught by Mrs. Ted Baun, world traveler, on the "Rim of Asia." The course deals with the Christian Mission in Asia and on Oct. 17, Mrs. McClure will begin a class on the subject. The class will be open to all church women of Torrance.

Fashion Benefit Is Slated For Aug. 28

South Bay Educational Office Employees Assn. will present a fashion show on Tuesday, Aug. 28, at 7:30 p.m. at the Center Avenue School in Manhattan Beach. The show is a pre-fall fund-raising event for the association.

Mrs. Leon Landon, of Lawndale, program chairman, is in charge of this benefit. Fashions will be displayed by a Torrance dress shop and a Torrance beauty salon will provide the latest in new hair fashions.

There will be refreshments and many door prizes.

Modeling will be Miss Barbara Corley and Mrs. Regis Jones, Torrance; Mmes. Frank Mainey, Edward Urban, Redondo Beach; Daniel Fricke, South Bay; Homer Hoover, Lawndale; Raymond Staehr, Palos Verdes; John Greenfield, Hawthorne; and Paul Beigay, El Segundo.

The public is invited to attend and tickets may be secured at the door.

Dance Set
For Seniors,
August 28

Senior Citizens Assn. of Los Angeles County will hold its annual summer dance Tuesday evening, Aug. 28, in the Civic Auditorium, Pico and Main Streets, in Santa Monica. The dance, to which there is no admission, will begin at 8 p.m. and continue until 11 p.m.

All Senior clubs in Region 4 district will be represented by their president or a representative acting as hostess or host for the evening.

A chartered bus will leave for the dance at 5:30 p.m. at 154th and South Van Ness Avenue.

Also planned is a bus trip to Fisherman's Fiesta at Port of Los Angeles in San Pedro on Saturday, Sept. 1. There will be a free bus trip to the NBC studios during the week of Sept. 10.

These events are sponsored by the Rosecrans Senior Ramblers. Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Elsa Stone.

At Patio Party

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Isaacs, who recently completed a beautiful new patio on their home at 22404 Charlotte Dr., entertained at a patio warming Saturday evening.

Thirty neighbors and friends were invited for the evening. The hosts served a supper, which was followed by dancing.

James Kings,
Newlyweds,
At Home

In a ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Livingston, 1431 227th St. at 2 o'clock on July 22, Miss Katherine Ann Stroble became the bride of James Ross King, 1561 W. 203rd St., Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. James King of Lawndale are the parents of the bridegroom.

The bride was escorted to the improvised altar by her guardian, Mr. Arthur Jordan. For her wedding, she wore a waltz-length gown of lace over white peau de soie. The bodice of the gown was sprinkled with pearls. Her shoulder-length illusion veil fell from a pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and yellow roses.

Mrs. Anita Vany was the matron of honor. She wore yellow chiffon over taffeta and carried white carnations. Joe Dee Belt stood as best man and Judge T. Baker of Beverly Hills officiated at the marriage.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis V. Andrews, 15522 Cerise, Gardena.

The newlyweds are now at home in Torrance following a honeymoon trip.

The bride was graduated from North High School. Her husband, who was educated in Tennessee, is a professional singer.

Samson-Crussell Nuptials
Solemnized at Nativity

In the presence of family members and close friends, Miss Carol Ann Samson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Samson, 1326 Date Ave., became the bride of Clark H. Crussell. The marriage was solemnized at one o'clock Saturday, Aug. 18, at Nativity Catholic Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crussell of Pittsburgh, Calif., who came for the wedding.

Mr. Samson escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a ballerina-length gown of white lace with long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white roses, orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Donald Hawhee was the bridal attendant. She was gowned in yellow nylon and carried yellow gladioli. Andrew Crussell stood as best man.

The Rev. William Appling officiated at the marriage. Miss Joyce Wayte was in charge of the bride's book. The 35 guests were entertained at a reception and luncheon at the Hacienda Hotel.

The newlyweds are now on a two weeks honeymoon to Seattle, where they will attend the World's Fair.

Upon their return, they will establish a Torrance home.

The new Mrs. Crussell was graduated from Torrance High School in 1958 and El Camino College in 1960. She is a receptionist at Dow Chemical.

Her husband, who attended school in Iowa, is also employed by Dow Chemical.

CDA Invites Public To Hear Missionary Tonight

Mrs. Richard A. Wurm Jr., grand regent of Court Our Lady of Victory, extends an invitation to the public to attend an open meeting this evening to hear Rev. Hugh Bryne, a Columbian missionary with many years service in China. Movies of his experiences will also be shown by Father Bryne.

The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. in the Knights of Columbus Hall, 214 Ave. 1, Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Marie Flynn, Catholic Daughter State chairman of World Missions, will be introduced by Mrs. Carmel Clune, World Missions chairman. Mrs. Flynn, a resident of Los Angeles and state chairman for the past two years, has stressed the Mission Circle Plan.

At the recent 29th biennial convention in Denver, she stated that of the 134 courts in the state, 44 have mission circles. These have contributed a total of $22,600 as well as material donations.

The CDA mission program covers many phases such as Special Child Project; the Madonna Plan, Feed-A-Family; Help-A-Priest and "Papal Storehouses for Charity."

On the home front they also assist with equipment for mission areas as well as orphanages.

Junior Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, sponsored by the Senior Court, is active in mission work also through their Pope's Fund donation and Sweaters N' Sweets campaign, both on the World Mission level. A complete layette for which each member must make one article, collecting food for Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets for needy families are two of the "Home Front" mission works of these youngsters.

Light refreshments will be served and there will be no admission charge.

Greet Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. John Sadowski, 3227 W. 166th St., announce the arrival of their first child, a girl, on Aug. 3 at the Daniel Freeman Hospital. The young lady has been named Stephanie Suzanne.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schmidt of Dickie, N. D., and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Laskowski, Brackenridge, Pa.

The Sadowskis have lived in Torrance for the past four years. He is an engineer with Northrop Aircraft.

There is no more practical time than now to introduce your family to the pleasures of Cadillac ownership.
