

Vicky Hippik Exchanges Vows with M. B. Cochran

Approximately 400 guests assembled at the First Baptist Church in Torrance, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, to witness the marriage of Miss Vicky La Royce Hippik and Michael Boyd Cochran. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charles Reed, 1442 W. 215th St., Torrance, and Mr. Steve Hippik. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cochran, 723 W. 228th St.

Mr. Charles Reed escorted the bride to the altar. Her wedding gown was of Chantilly lace and tulle fashioned with a fitted bodice with a Sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves. The front of the skirt was of lace and tulle panels. The back, made of tiers of lace and tulle, cascaded into a chapel train. A French illusion veil was attached to the headpiece of lace and seed pearls. The bride carried white orchids encircled by white rosebuds. The bridal entourage was headed by three bridesmaids, Miss Janet Reed, Mrs. Mary Tole and Mrs. Collene Wilson, all wearing yellow chiffon over taffeta.

Miss Sharon Magner was honor attendant, wearing a gown of apricot chiffon over taffeta. Their bouquets were bronze chrysanthemums tied with moss green ribbon.

Cindy Adams, in yellow crystalline, was flower girl and Peter John Lasken carried the rings.

John Pafdt stood as best man and ushers were Tom Cochran, David Bridge, and Don Daniels.

The Rev. Robert Dehn, pastor, officiated at the vow exchange as Mrs. Pat Ouwendijk played the nuptial music. Marvin McKissick was soloist.

Mrs. Flora Herman was in charge of the guest book at the reception which followed in the church social hall.

The newly-married couple is now honeymooning at Carmel and Monterey.

The new address is 729 1/2 Friends Ave., Whittier.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High school in 1960 and attended Westmont College in Santa Barbara.

Her husband, a Banning High graduate, is now attending Biola College at La Mirada.

Wnuck-Barnett Nuptials Read in Lutheran Rites

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Inglewood was the setting Saturday at 5 o'clock for the wedding ceremony uniting Miss Sharon Mary Wnuck and Gill Barnett. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wnuck, 21102 Denker Ave., Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnett of Hawthorne.

In a Cahill gown of white lipper satin the bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a crown of pearls and orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of orchids, lilies-of-the-valley and stephanotis.

Miss Carol Wnuck was her sister's maid of honor. She wore an aqua satin sheath with organza overskirt and carried white carnations and pink roses.

Bridesmaids were Misses Susan Hoover, Donette Gray and Mrs. Robert Johnson. They were gowned in Kelley green satin sheaths with organza overskirts and carried pink and white carnations. Teri Sue Wnuck was her sister's flower girl. She wore white organza.

William Clark stood as best man and ushers were Tom Barnett, Irvin Wnuck and Robert Johnson.

Milton Eggers played the wedding music and John Hertert was soloist. The church pastor officiated at the marriage.

A reception was held at the parish hall where Miss Maureen O'Malley registered the guests. Close friends and relatives were entertained at the bride's home later.

After a honeymoon in northern California, the newlyweds will live in Gardena. The bride was graduated from Gardena High school and attended UC at Santa Barbara.

Her husband, a Hawthorne High graduate, attended Harbor Junior College.

RN Camp to Begin Season

Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors of America will begin the fall activities on Tuesday evening, Sept. 4, when the first business meeting will be held with Ethel Liske, oracle, presiding. The group meets at the Torrance Woman's club, 1422 Engracia Ave.

At noon on Tuesday, Sept. 11, the Sewing Circle of the Camp will hold a fashion show and cold plate luncheon at the clubhouse. Fashions for the modern woman and junior miss as well as children's clothes will be modeled at this time. Mrs. Bertha Sharpe is chairman of the luncheon-show.

The second business meeting is scheduled for Sept. 18. The September card party has been cancelled as the clubhouse will be undergoing remodeling.

Chi Chapter of Phi entertained at a luau recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Scott, 26380 Bellporte, Harbor City. Chapter members and 80 guests enjoyed a dinner of authentic Hawaiian food prepared by Mr. and Mrs. William Tretter.

The Chi chapter members will assist the national chapter with its booth at Fisherman's Fiesta in San Pedro from Aug. 31 to Sept. 3.

Sprout Family Home From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sprout and daughters, Jeannie and Linda, 1327 Beech Ave., returned Sunday from a three weeks vacation trip. They went to Hayward where they visited a n o t h e r daughter, Peggy, who teaches there, before going to San Francisco for several days. Driving north through Oregon and into Washington, they attended the World's Fair in Seattle. Next on their itinerary was a trip into Canada before starting the homeward journey. In Chico, they were guests of Mrs. Sprout's sister.

Jewish Holiday Program For Sisterhood Meeting

First meeting of the fiscal year for the Sisterhood of Congregation Ner Tamid will welcome prospective members and will feature an elaborate program entitled "The Jewish Home Beautiful." The meeting will be held on Sept. 10 at 8 p.m. at the Casa Verde in Palos Verdes.

Rabbi Bernard Wechsberg will deliver the invocation and Mrs. Harlan Cherman will present a narrative of each of the major Jewish holidays. Individual tables will be set depicting each of these holidays and will be on display at the conclusion of the program. The tables will be decorated by the following Sisterhood members: Rosh Hashonah, Mmes. Bill Berkoff; Yom Kippur, Lenny Bove; Succoth, Manny Diamant and Robert Feuchtbaum; Chanukah, Mark Markman and Jack Meltzer with Mrs. Mark Meltzer reciting the kiddush; Purim, Harold Chertock and Gilbert Shafting; Pesach, William Finkel and Ed Trabin with Richard Bove asking the four questions; Shayouth, Bernard Wechsberg and Howard Berk; Sabbath, Norman Rosen and E. Tarr. David Tarr will recite the kiddush and Mrs. Tarr will bless the Sabbath candles.

Refreshments will be served following the program. Members and friends are invited to attend this meeting to see the beautiful and enlightening presentation.

Events Planned by Auxiliary

A pot luck dinner to be held in September and the Annual Ball slated for fall were discussed at the meeting of the Auxiliary to the Torrance Fire Department held at the home of Mrs. Richard Nanney.

After the business meeting, the hostess served refreshments.

Attending were Mmes. Richard Sprout, Bill Stonecker, Sam Martin, Gilbert Pike, Robert Moffitt and Richard Nanney. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jim Wass, 3252 Winlock Rd., on Sept. 10 at 6:30 p.m. Members will provide hot dishes and salads. Dessert will be furnished by the hostess and her co-hostess, Mrs. Sprout.

A short business meeting will be held to complete plans for the Ball.

Crestline Holiday

Mrs. Lyle O'Hara and three daughters and Mrs. John Brislin and two daughters have returned from a two weeks vacation at their Green Chalet at Crestline. Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Brislin joined their families for the last week of the vacation.

Northern Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McMullen, 1734 Watson, returned Wednesday from a several days trip to Travis Air Force Base, near San Francisco, where they visited their grandson, Larry Drury, who was leaving for an assignment in Japan. The McMullens also visited friends in Stockton and Antioch.

Missouri Guest

Mrs. Pearl Richards of Bolivar, Mo., is spending several weeks here with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed, 1442 W. 215th St., Torrance. Mrs. Richards came especially to be present at the marriage of her niece, Vicky Hippik and Michael Cochran, which took place last Saturday evening.

Author To Speak At Library

Mrs. Eleanor Cameron, children's book author, will speak to children and interested parents on Tuesday, Sept. 11 at 2 p.m. in the Children's Room of the Torrance Library, 1345 Post.

Mrs. Cameron has written several books for children including the very popular "Mushroom Planet" series.

Her books are "Wonderful Flight to the Mushroom Planet," 1954; "Stowaway to the Mushroom Planet," 1956; "Mr. Bass's Planetoid," 1958; "Mystery for Mr. Bass," 1960; "Terrible Churnadryne," 1959; and "Mysterious Christmas Shell," 1961.

This program will mark the end of the summer reading club for this year.

Reading club folders will be returned to the children who have participated in the club. Almost 200 have joined during the summer at the Torrance library.
