LIFE'S LIKE THAT By FRED NEHER

"It was a bowling accident . . . he dropped a ball on his foot when the blonde in the next alley split her skirt."

Drawing Room Theater Opens Big Comedy Hit

Opening tomorrow night at the Drawing Room Theater is "No Time for Sergeants." The play will run through Oct. 6 at the little theater, 1560 Manhattan Beach Blvd., Manhattan Beach. Seats for this weekend's performances are now on sale and tickets may be reserved by calling 374-1309. The play recounts the misadventures of a hillbilly and his buddy on their assignment to the Air Force though their ambition is to be infantrymen. Bill Engle stars as the hillbilly, while his partner in the hilarious enterprise is Willie Inman. Others in the cast include Charles Rothlein, Bert Milligan and Donald Larson. Carroll Hauser and Jim Powell also have featured roles. Curtain time for the weekend is 8 p.m.

Summer Slates for Area Playgrounds End Today

Torrance Recreation Department's summer programs on parks and school playgrounds will be concluded today. Some programs wound up yesterday. North and South High schools which have already ended their summer programs, will announce their new schedules early in September. Park areas will begin new fall schedules on Sept. 10. Recreation leadership will be provided on the park areas from Sept. 1 to 9 at the following parks: Walteria, El Retiro, McMaster, El Nido, and La Romeria parks, 1 to 9 p.m., Monday through Friday; 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday; and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Cub Pack 755-C
August pack meeting of Boy Scout Cub Pack 755-C was held at the 223rd Street School auditorium with Cubmaster Paul Danford presenting awards to seven Cubbers. Receiving a bear badge was Paul Koler and Stewart Zauacky. Billy Lehman received a gold arrow and silver arrow; Steve Elliott received two silver arrows, and one-year pins were given to Richard Holloway, Phillip Galloway, and Norman Adams. Den 8 won the hatchet for having the most parents at the August meeting and also won the honor flag for having the best appearing den. Plans were made for a pack picnic in Brea Canyon. Other events discussed was an outing aboard the USS Yorktown last month, and the Pinewood Derby held by the Cubs. Winners included James Horne, Michael Williams, David Blunt and Steve Elliott.
