Lund Insurance Expands With San Pedro Agency

Russell Lund, founder of the local pioneer insurance firm, and T. C. Springfield, president of Gilbert C. Van Camp Insurance Agency, Inc., of San Pedro, have announced an exchange of reciprocal facilities.

William E. Brady, presently vice president of the well known San Pedro company, has been appointed general manager of the Lund Co. effective Sept. 1. Brady, a Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter, will assist in the expansion plans of the Lund Co. to better serve the insurance needs of Torrance.

Lund has agreed, under a five-year contract, to act as consultant, and to devote a portion of his time to analysis and consultation work for the Van Camp Agency. Their firm insures a worldwide clientele. In addition to the professional insurance the Lund Agency now provides for home, business, government and industry, they will now have a broadened marine insurance market, including the facilities of Lloyd's, London.

of the door and smashed the wood and glass.

IN A ONE-CAR accident about 11 p.m. Thursday, Daniel Bernard Holly, 19, of Gardena suffered major injuries and was taken to Little Company of Mary Hospital after he lost control of his car on a turn and struck a street sign. He was thrown from the sedan which came to a stop in a field.

The accident occurred at Redondo Beach Boulevard and 164th Street.

Two persons, the driver and a passenger, suffered minor injuries about 7:44 a.m. Thursday when the sedan they were in collided with a parked car registered to James Thomas Breashear, 4406 Torrance Blvd. The accident occurred in front of Breashear's home.

DRIVER OF THE car was Christine Euckley, 18, of 21317 Grant St. The injured passenger was Rosemary Buckley, 8. Both were taken to Little Company of Mary Hospital.

The accident occurred when the driver turned around to tell her brother in the back seat that he had missed throwing a paper at a house, she said. She lost control of the vehicle and collided with the rear of the parked sedan, she added.
