Registrar On Duty at Temple Here

As a public service to the South Bay community, Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach, will have a registrar of voters on its premises on Sunday morning, Sept. 9, from 10 a.m. to noon, to register citizens of the South Bay who have not registered for the November elections. This was the announcement made yesterday by David Morrison, chairman of the social action committee of Temple Menorah.

The congregation, the oldest and largest in the Peninsula area and the only temple with its own facilities, is also the only Jewish congregation which has a social action committee designated to study the needs and discuss the problems of the Southwest area.
 The registrar of voters, Benjamin F. Hite, has approved Mrs. Marlene Rothstein as the official registrar for Temple Menorah's program.

PARENTS WHO wish to enroll children in the Temple's Religious School and Hebrew School can do so at the same time. Applications for membership entitles families to register their children at no extra cost.

Further information about the temple's activities and about High Holy Day services can be obtained from the temple office, FR 8-8444, or Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sokolski, FR 5-9627, chairman of the membership committee.
