towners is indeed supposed to take the initiative. However, this is not a crime punishable by solitary confinement.

Some people are actually unaware of this point of etiquette. So it would be gracious to call her and say "Welcome."

Dear Ann Landers: My problem concerns my bachelor son who is 31 years old. We share a lovely two-story home. On the second floor is my bedroom and sitting room. Clifton's bedroom, which is also on the second floor, has an adjoining library with a built-in cocktail bar.

He has no special sweetheart, but prefers to date two or three young women a week. He often brings them home to dinner. Some of his female companions are charming and well-bred. Others are cheap and unladylike. I needn't comment.

A few weeks ago Clifton started something I don't approve of. After dinner he invites his girl friends to see his quarters on the second floor. The door is closed and that's the last I see of them. When I told him I didn't think this was proper he replied, "I'm not a teenager, Mother. This is my home, too."

Am I old-fashioned? Is he right? May I hear from you? —MRS. METHUSELAH

Dear Mrs. Methuselah: Clifton should have his own apartment if he wishes the type of privacy which a closed door suggests.

To learn how to keep your boy friend in line without losing him, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Necking and Petting—And How Far to Go," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (C) 1962, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Pre-Nuptial Shower For Bride-elect

Miss Wanda Wands, who will be married to Gary Moore Saturday evening at the Walteria Methodist Church, has been complimented at two bridal showers recently.

Miss Elaine Baltad entertained at a personal shower for the future bride. Yellow and white were used in decorating and the heart theme was used in place settings.

Guests were Meses. Dale Wands, Carl Cramer, Frank Howe, Leonard Baltad, and Robert Kelly. Also, Misses Marlene Volgat and Caria Cramer. Guests brought gifts for the bride-elect's kitchen at the party given in her honor by Mrs. James Kritz.

The hostess chose a red and white theme for decorating. Games were played after which the honoree opened her gifts. Mrs. Kritz served refreshments, assisted by Rosemary, Susie and Tina Kritz and Debbie Finley. Guests at this party were Meses. Robert Sleeth, Jr., Don Forth, James Finley, Ed Kircher, Dale Wands; Misses Elaine Baltad and Marcella Winn.

Plans for the 1962-63 year will also be presented as well as ways and means suggestions. All Alpha Xi Delta alumnae are invited to attend. For further information call Mrs. Thomas Black, Redondo; Mrs. Luther Beard, Palos Verdes; or Mrs. Ken Cunningham, Torrance.

The calendar for the year was set up at an alumnae board meeting at the home of Mrs. Black in Redondo. A variety of interesting programs was slated. Business meetings will be held on the third Thursday of each month.

Board members present were Meses. Black, Louis Bradvica, Reginald Martin, Billy Blanchard, Luther Beard and Ken Cunningham.

At Woman's Club Club Will Parade New Fall Fashions

Wives of Los Angeles Police Officers (Wolapo) Chapter 4, of the South Bay area, will stage a fashion show on Sept. 19 at 8 p.m. at the Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave. Theme for the show is "Fall Fantasy."

Fashions will be furnished by a Torrance and a Redondo Beach dress shops.

Members of the club, who will serve as models, are Meses. Thomas Haire, William Williams, Roger Smoyer, Mary Ann Fineberg, and William Perkins.

Mrs. Dorothy Taylor, owner of a charm and modeling school in Redondo, will serve as commentator.

The newest in hairstyles will be provided by the Flavio Beauty College of Torrance.

During the show, a beaded Cashmere sweater, the work of Mrs. Clara Vega, mother of Mrs. Mary Funk, a club member, will also be modeled.

Door prizes will be awarded throughout the evening and refreshments will be served during intermission.

The public is invited to see the parade of new fall fashions. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Twin Mothers To Hear Talk on 'Delinquency'

L. G. Rethwisch of the Torrance Police Dept. will address the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club at its Sept. 17 dinner meeting at the Halfway House in Torrance on "Causes of Delinquency Today."

A member of the Torrance Police Dept. for the past 13 years and presently head of its Juvenile Division, L. G. Rethwisch is a graduate of the Delinquency Control Institute of the University of Southern California. This institute has gained nationwide attention for its work in this vital field and L. G. Rethwisch will report to the club members on the institute, as well as outline the basic problems confronting the community in controlling delinquency.

The South Bay Mothers of Twins Club is dedicated to promoting child welfare wherever possible. His address will be followed by a question-and-answer period.

Co-chairman Mrs. Robert Jackson of Rolling Hills and Mrs. James Husereau of Torrance will present their completed plans for "Fantasy in Starlight," the club's fall dance social. The Oct. 6 dance party will be held at the Fred Astaire Dance Studio in Torrance, with many delightful surprises awaiting members and guests. Proceeds from this annual affair help support the club's main philanthropic project.

For further information, any interested mother of twins in this area is invited to call Mrs. Ronald Eisman of Torrance.

Y-Wives To Begin Year On Sept. 18

Torrance Y-Wives will begin another season of activities on Tuesday, Sept. 18, at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St.

Mrs. Steve Myzel, president, invites all women of the area to attend this open meeting which begins at 9:30 a.m. A revue of last year's activities, a film, and future activities will be featured, followed by refreshments. Interested women may join the group. There will be no charge for this meeting and child care will be provided.

Regular meetings will be held at the "Y" each Tuesday morning from 9:30 to 12 noon and will feature a slim and trim session, followed by a speaker and refreshments. Supervised care for children of all ages is provided at no extra cost with special care for infants.

In addition to regular meetings, there will be seasonal social events for members and their husbands. Included are a Halloween party, Christmas parties for children and adults, Easter program and a spring fashion show. Highlighting the activities is the annual spring luau.

Saturday, in markets of the area, posters will be displayed advertising the club. Y-Wives members will be on hand to give information concerning membership.

Fete Guests

Enjoying the oceanfare at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes recently were Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Mitchell of Hollywood Riviera, who entertained at dinner in the "Porpoise Room" for Mr. and Mrs. James Shields of Utica, N. Y.

Sears Offers Charm Course For Juniors

Teens and subteens, now well past the "3-Rs", will have an opportunity to study the "3-As"—how to be Alert-Alive and Attractive—when the Beverlee Kelley Charm School opens the new semester Monday, Sept. 24, at Sears Torrance store.

Girls from 9 to 19 may enroll for the 10-week course at a cost "well within a teenager's budget," according to Miss Kelley who conducted the original charm school for Sears at the El Monte store in 1959.

"The overwhelming response to our first classes, and each year since, clearly shows a real desire on the part of girls in this age group for expert guidance in grooming, conversation, manners, wardrobe, hair and skin care," Miss Kelley reports. "Correct knowledge of these fundamentals leads to greater self assurance which is essential in being popular and enjoy life fully."

Charm school classes at Sears Torrance store will be conducted by Miss Hallaiah on Mondays and Saturdays. Girls will attend either day, depending on their age group. Sessions are scheduled at times convenient for teenagers and will last one hour each.

Special rates are available for groups, such as Girl Scouts and Campfire Girls, and completion of the course

OES Breakfast Sunday Morning

Lomita Chapter 591, Order of Eastern Star, will host a pancake breakfast Sunday, Sept. 16, from 8 to 12 noon at the Masonic Temple, 25725 Bland Place, Lomita.

Lillian Tomlinson, associate conductress and Marion Jackson, associate patron, are serving as chairmen of the event.

will win credit toward awards in these organizations.

The increasing importance of charm school training for teens and subteens is indicated in Sears expansion of this service to 11 of its stores in the Los Angeles-Orange County area.
