

Pathfinder Club Plans 'Camporee'

Pathfinder youth club members of Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave., are readying tents, field stoves, and all sorts of outdoor camping equipment this week in preparation for a Southland wide "Camporee" they will attend at Lancaster Friday through Sunday.

At the giant youth meet, members of the local church youth club will participate in contests with members of some 50 other Pathfinder church youth clubs in Los Angeles,

Santa Barbara, Ventura, and Kern counties.

"THIS ANNUAL event will help our club members develop outdoor camping skills which will provide valuable through their entire life," said John Dillon, 4713 Laurette St., Pathfinder Club director of the 24 member church youth club.

Dillon said the Camporee will be held at the Antelope Valley Fair Grounds in Lancaster. Hundreds of youngsters representing Adventist youth clubs throughout the four-county area will attend the event.

ON FRIDAY afternoon, according to Dillon, local club members will pitch their tents and make ready their area of the vast youth encampment. Saturday will feature religious services, which Seventh-day Adventists observe on the seventh day of the week, as well as nature hikes.

Throughout Sunday the local club will participate with the many other clubs in such contests as high jumping, broad jumping, and fire-making by flint and steel, said Dillon.

The club will return to Torrance late Sunday evening.

WINS RIBBON

Lynn M. Kelley of Torrance, member of the Mustang Club, won blue ribbons at the County Fair for an apron and laundry bag in the home economics division of the junior fair.

Chest Unit Sets Goal At $10,530

The commerce and industry unit of the Community Chest Campaign in Torrance has set the 1962-63 goal for firms and employees at $10,530.

Wallace Haas, Torrance unit chairman, announced the quota Thursday during a kickoff meeting.

Solicitation of funds for health, welfare and youth services started immediately after the meeting.

Haas assured volunteer workers attending the kickoff meeting that they were volunteering for a worthwhile cause. He told the workers that over the past year hundreds of people from the Harbor area used the services provided by Chest funds.

"LAST YEAR," Haas said, "hundreds of people, from children to the elderly, were the recipients of the services provided by Community Chest funds. Many of the people aided came from Torrance and other parts of the Harbor area."

As in past campaigns, volunteers in commerce and industry will try to get a pledge of eight minutes a week from employees. If 75 per cent of employees in a firm pledge eight minutes a week... they win the coveted Bronze Plaque for outstanding citizenship.

EIGHT MINUTES a week is the basic goal which the community's business and labor leaders agree on as a standard of fair share giving of hourly employees.

The gift of the firm can be made through the pro rata share plan which was developed to help corporations in the Los Angeles area determine what is a fair and equitable gift to the Community Chest United Way Campaign.

The plan is based on business trends, profits, previous giving and trade association information and is constantly reviewed and up-dated by top business leaders.
