

FOR PROSPECTIVE MEMBERS . . . Provisional League of Women Voters of Torrance invite all interested women to a tea at the Davies home in Redondo Beach on Wednesday, Sept. 26. Making plans for the meeting, at which the purposes of the league will be explained are, from left, Mmes. Maurice Davies, director of foreign economic study; Milton Feinberg, director of unit organizations; and S. R. Saunders, public relations director.

Women's Voter League Plans Membership Tea

A tea for prospective members of the Provisional League of Women Voters of Torrance will be given at 1 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 26 at the home of Mrs. Maurice Davies, 174 Via Monte D'Oro, Redondo Beach.

Purposes and functions of the league will be explained by Mrs. Davis Menkin, past executive vice president of the California League of Women Voters.

Greeting members and guests will be Mrs. Albert

Nadel, president, and the hostess, Mrs. Lee Bower and Mrs. Donald Brink will pour.

Assisting Mrs. R. R. Christenson, chairman, will be Mmes. Sydney Weiner and Edward Slattery.

A non-partisan, grass-roots organization, the league is dedicated to promotion of political responsibility and good government on the local, state, and national level.

Women desiring to learn about league study and activity are invited to attend.

Constance Patterson Is Now Mrs. D. A. Dietsch

Miss Constance Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson, 2601 Highcliff Dr., Torrance, exchanged her wedding promises with Dalton A. Dietsch in an eight o'clock ceremony at the First Methodist Church in Torrance on Sept. 1. Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Dietsch of Burlington, Iowa, are parents of the bridegroom.

Mr. Patterson escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a Chantilly lace gown over bridal satin detailed with a scalloped round neckline, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant skirt which cascaded into a chapel train. A princess tiara of pearls held her misty illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and Stephanotis atop a white Bible.

Miss Patti Mroczko was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Sue Moyer and Sandy Fleeman. The attendants wore princess gowns of gold taffeta and each carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

Robert Feldman stood as best man and ushers were William Patterson and O. D. Oglesby.

The Rev. Gilbert Zimmerman officiated at the marriage and a reception was held in the Presidential Suite at the Plush Horse Inn. Pennie and Kathy Patterson were in charge of the bride's book.

The couple spent a honeymoon in Santa Barbara and are now at home at 1557 Torrance Blvd.

The bride was graduated from South High in June 1962. Her husband was educated in Iowa.

Senior Club Will Meet Friday Noon

Rosecrans Senior Ramblers will meet tomorrow at 11 in the clubhouse at Rosecrans Playground, 840 W. 149th St., Gardena.

At noon, a pot luck lunch will be enjoyed. Mrs. Florence McCain is director. Each person attending will bring a dish of food and his own table service.

"Whoopie" will be played during the afternoon and each guest is asked to bring a small prize.

The Ramblers enjoyed a trip to the Ice Follies recently. Their next trip will be to the Pomona Fair on Monday, Sept. 24. A chartered bus will leave 154th Street and S. Van Ness Ave. at 11 a.m. The cost will include the round trip fare and a reduced gate ticket.

Anyone interested in the club, games, tours and dancing, is invited to attend Friday's meeting.

Mrs. Elsa Stone, president, may be called for further information.

Circle Meets

Martha Circle of the First Methodist Church had its first fall meeting at the Torrance Park on Sept. 6.

A potluck luncheon was enjoyed by 10 members.

A business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Adel Burchfield and plans for the year were made.

The next meeting of the Martha Circle will be held at the home of Mrs. L. H. Boughn, 2668 W. 220th St.

Eta Phi Aid Benefit Ball Ticket Sale

Mrs. E. E. Bowen, president, Eta Phi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority conducted the first meeting of the current year for the chapter at the home of Mrs. Ralph Hartman on Sept. 18.

Tickets were distributed to members to sell for the fifth annual "Pink Carnation" ball to be held by Mira Costa Regional Council, ESA, on Oct. 6 at the Lakewood Country Club. The 14 chapters in the Council all participate in this affair to help raise funds for the State Branch of ESA's yearly philanthropic project, the support of the Crippled Children's Foundation.

There will be dance music by Johnny Winkler's orchestra and many door prizes given. The grand prize will be a two-day stay at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas. Tickets may be obtained from any ESA member.

Mrs. T. W. McLaughlin presented plans for a teen-age cosmetic party, and Mrs. Glen Springer discussed the possibility of members learning the intricacies of millinery-making as an interesting subject for diversion this year.

Visitor Feted

A dinner party at the Pen & Quill in Manhattan Beach was given by Mrs. Evelyn Bole of Hollywood Riviera in honor of her mother, Mrs. Harriet Kramer, who is visiting the South Bay area from Daytona Beach, Fla.

The family gathering included Miss Suzanne Kramer, Miss Linda Bole and Donald V. Kramer.

Aires Family Moves to Area

Newcomers to the Bay area are the S. J. Aires, who have just moved to Barkentine Road, Portuguese Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Aires were accompanied from their home at Lake Quivika, Kansas City, Mo., by their two sons, Tony, 17, and Barry, 10. Mrs. Aires is the former Charlotte Fraser of Huntington, Long Island.
