White Front Opening First Unite in City

Grand opening for a new ties will be Bobbet King, Miss 9 p.m., Mondays through Fri-motive Center at 21210 Haw thorne Ave., will be observed this morning. The center features 18 acres of free parking and air conditioned waiting more than the same days.

.

The conditioned waiting rooms which include coffee and soft drink vending machines, * * *

WHITE FRONT discount savings stamps are given with purchases of tires, mufflers, square feet under canopy. brakes, shock absorbers, batbrakes, snock absorbers, bat-teries, seat covers and radios. Stamps worth two cents each are issued for each gallon of gasoline purchased. Included in opening activi-

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

city's revenue from sales Installation is available on

MRS. PIP'S

tax. REACTION of Mayor Albert Isen was immediate.

"I'm sure the city can not make a gift of city funds to another district," Isen told the HERALD. Lynn had told his colleagues on the Board of Education that Torrance would receive an estimated $1,750,000 in sales tax this year, and that the figure would be doubled if the college were to be lo-By FRED NEHER

(Continued from Page 1)

"If the city. "If the city is going to be so plush in sales tax funds, we could reduce property tax-es and the people would bene-fit just the same," Isen said.

LYNN SAID he had investigated the revenue of the prop-erty under consideration for a college site and that it was estimated that the school dis-trict would lose between $100,000 and $200,000 if the sloo,ood and s200,ood in the college is placed there. "It's ironic that people want the college in town and yet they will not vote for bonds so children can reach a college level," Board Member Kurt Shery said. Consideration of a new elec.

Consideration of a new election date for the $8 million bond issue was delayed be-cause of the absence of Board President Albert Charles. The members present were divided on whether to hold the election in February or put it off until the school board election in April. The 1 trustees meet again Monday evening for their regular meeting, and discus their sion of the election is certain to be on the agenda.

SURVEY PARTY . . . YMCA Manager Joe Wilcox checks damage after flames charred kitchen side of the YMCA building at 2080 Washington Monday evening. Looking on through the window are Charles and Paul Bush and Steve Jefferson. Arson investigators are checking reports that someone was seen setting the blaze. Damage was estimated at several hundred dollars. (Herald Photo)

MYRTLE McMANUS Requiem Mass for Mrs. Myr-tle McManus, 91, of 931 Arlingtional Supply Division of Arm

Chapel. She is survived by a daugh-ter, Mrs. Richard R. Smith, 1...17 Flower Ave.; a grand-daughter, Mrs. Phillips M. Brooks; and a great-grandson, Robin Brooks.

Narbonne Eleven Faces Washington

Lifting the curtain on the 1962 grid season, Narbonne will oppose rugged Washington tomorrow at 8 p.m. on the Gar-dena High field.

Washington, a threat in the Southern League, took Marine League foe Narbonne in last year's encounter.

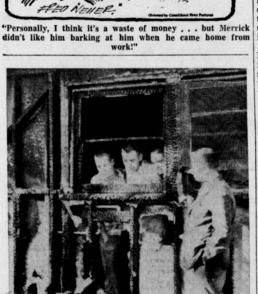

Citizen of the Year To Be Named Tonight

Boulevard and Rosecrans Ave- | SEPTEMBER 27, 1962 nue will start at 7 p.m. with a reception in the Mark Twain Room followed by a dinner at 8 p.m. in the Manhattan Room.

Torrance's Citizen of the Year will be named tonight at the annual chamber of com-merce banquet in Manhattan Beach. Principal speaker will be James P. Bradley, president of the Dominguez Water Corp., who will narrate "The Tor-rance Story," a history of the ton Ave., will be celebrated at the Nativity Catholic Church at 9 a.m. today and interment will follow at Holy Cross Cemetery. Mrs. McManus, who came to Torrance with her husband, Harry, in 1913, died Monday. The pioneer Torrance family came here when the late Mr. McManus was employed by the Union Tool Co., now the Na

CO. Holy Rosary was recited for Mrs. McManus last evening at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel.

Almost unbelievable! Thousands of items and nothing over 88c . . . toys, housewares, glassware, jewelry, floral arrange-ments, lodies' ready-to-wear, children's clothing, infant's wear, ceramics . . . gosh, almost all your daily needs (food excepted) and nothing over 88c.

0

