

Taylor's Become Great-grandparents

Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Taylor, 741 Border Ave., Torrance became great-grandparents on Sept. 24.

Their granddaughter, Mrs. Sharon Barlow Stephens of San Bernardino gave birth to a son on that day.

Mrs. Stephens and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lillard A. Barlow, are former Torrance residents, residing at 1844 Santa Fe Ave.

Course in Finance Is Given at YW

This evening at 7:30 Raymond Lee Zager, well known estate planning attorney, will present the second session of the "Financial Planning for Women" program sponsored by the Torrance YWCA.

The first session given last Thursday was an introduction to personal financial planning, and the final two sessions will cover the use of insurance and the role of investments in planning a financial future.

"We are fortunate to have Mr. Zager as guest speaker," said Carol Wood, director of the Torrance YWCA. "Mr. Zager's time is spent on many important speaking engagements all over the country and he is one of the few attorneys in the United States on the American Bar Assn. Committee on banking institutions. Mr. Zager will tell us what our legal rights are in these troubled times."

For further information and reservations call the Torrance YWCA.

At Arrowhead

Mrs. Don Wolf and daughter, Mrs. Richard Gazeley spent the weekend at Lake Arrowhead where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Murdock, also of Torrance.

Carnival at Edison School Friday Evening

Edison PTA will stage a carnival beginning tomorrow at 5 p.m. on the school grounds, 3800 W. 182nd St.

Among the features will be a cakewalk, country store, bowling, ring toss and other attractions. A turkey dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7 p.m. in the cafeterium. Other refreshments will be served on the school patio. "Roaring 20s" will be the carnival theme.

Mrs. Gabriel Lensing, membership chairman, announces a membership drive Oct. 1 through 15. "Fly High with Edison" is the theme of the drive, according to Mrs. H. Brigham, president.

Engagement Told

A family dinner held at the Pen & Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach served to announce the engagement of Miss Shirley Kagel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Kagel of Hawthorne, to Stephen Onslager of Torrance. The couple plans to be married Oct. 6.

Fiestadores Open Season With Fiesta

NANCY KLEINHAMMER ... At Local YWCA

A "Fiesta" was the theme for the first fall dance of the Las Fiestadores Dance club on Saturday evening, Sept. 15, at the Pen & Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach. This was also a "Guest Night" for the club.

Club members and their guests gathered at the Joseph Helpand home, 21909 Middlebrook, for a cocktail party prior to going to the restaurant to dance.

The registration table was gaily decorated in the Fiesta theme, covered with a serape and decorated with a ceramic bull, morracons and other South of the Border decor.

Les Tronsier's orchestra furnished the music for dancing.

Arrangements for the evening were made by a committee, Messrs. and Mmes. Helpand, Walt Clausing, Don Robinson, Earl Clayton and Ralph Ruglaff.

New Teenage Director at Local YW

Miss Nancy Kleinhammer has been named the new Teenage Program Director for the Torrance YWCA.

Miss Kleinhammer comes to Torrance from the Long Beach YWCA where she served in the same capacity for the past four years.

The new director is a graduate of Long Beach City and Long Beach State colleges, majoring in recreation.

During her career, she has served as program director for the Camp Fire Girls camp in Idaho and for the YWCA camp in Winnipeg, Canada.

Miss Kleinhammer, who joined the staff of the local YWCA on Sept. 4, is advising the nine teenage clubs and the Inter-club Council.

Approximately 500 Torrance teenagers participate in the program offered by the YWCA.

Travelers Return From Tour of East

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thacker and Mrs. Minnie Solomon returned to their home at 1451 Post Ave., last Monday from a four and a half months vacation trip on which they drove over 10,000 miles.

The trio left Torrance May 7 for Michigan, stopping at places of interest along the way. They visited with Mrs. Thacker's sister, Mrs. Nora Jones, in Michigan before going on east. They stopped at Cooperstown, N.Y., to see the birthplace of baseball, enroute to Hartford, Conn., where they were joined by the Thackers' son, Rev. Ralph Thacker, a Baptist minister, who is studying in a seminary there.

A tour of the New England states as far north as Bar Harbor, Maine, was their next project on which they visited places connected with the early history of the nation.

Returning to Hartford, they were guests of Dr. Grey, minister at the South Congregational Church, for several days.

Driving South to Pennsylvania, the travelers visited Gettysburg, Valley Forge, and other places on the return to Michigan, where they took a cabin for two weeks on the Au Sable River.

On the return trip to California, at Pacific, Mo., they stopped at the same motel with the Godfrey Nelsons from Torrance who had spent the summer at their home in Southwick, Mass., and were enroute home. The localities all had dinner together, and the next morning began their trip on Route 66, arriving on the same day in Torrance.
