Employ-the-Handicapped Luncheon Meeting Set

Leaders of industry, labor, and government will promote National Employ-The-Handicapped week at a luncheon in the Biltmore Hotel on Oct. 3, according to Victor Carbone, chairman of the event.

William P. McCahill of Washington, D. C., executive secretary of President Kennedy's Committee on Employment for the Handicapped, will present the President's award for distinguished service to the handicapped to actor Robert Cummings, and to Lillian Karnes, both leaders in this project.

A posthumous award to the late Justin Johnson, supervisor of community relations for Hughes Aircraft Co., and a national pioneer in the movement, will be awarded to his widow Mary. Victor Carbone, chairman of the Los Angeles County Coordinating Council on Employment for the Handicapped will make the presentation.

L. A. HYLAND, general manager of Hughes Aircraft, wins a similar award of recognition for the company's policy of employing handicapped persons.

Carbone says President Kennedy, Governor Brown, Mayor Yorty, and the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors have proclaimed Oct. 7

Douglas Shifts Four Executives

Four major appointments in the realigned corporate employment relations department were announced yesterday by J. Curtis Counts, director, employment relations, Douglas Aircraft Co., Inc., Santa Monica.

Appointees are K. E. Renshaw, director of compensation; R. G. Adamson, director of industrial relations; C. H. Knight, director of personnel research and development, and B. K. Melekian, administrator of employe communications.

Also consolidated with the new department are two other activities, medical director, H. L. Herschensohn and director of welfare J. L. Stevenson.
