Gas Company PR Chief Elected Vice President

Frank C. Sullivan, director of public relations for the Southern California Gas Co. since 1954 was elected vice president by the Board of Directors...

A widely known California public relations executive and author before joining the privately owned utility, Sullivan is also chairman of a special public relations committee...

Sullivan is also a past president of the local chapter of the Public Relations Society of America.

IN MAKING the announcement, President F. M. Banks said the election of Sullivan to the new position "emphasizes our company's continuing interest in maintaining and intensifying its already excellent public relations program..."

Prior to entering the public relations field, Sullivan worked for some 12 years on various West Coast newspapers including the Portland Oregonian, Sacramento Bee and Oakland Tribune.

SUBSEQUENTLY, for a 10-year period he was director of public relations for the California Public Utilities Commission. Leaving there to establish his own public relations firm of Frank Sullivan Associates in San Francisco, Sullivan handled business accounts and directed a number of state wide political campaigns.

He has written numerous articles on utility public relations and taught courses on publicity and public relations at the University of California Extension in San Francisco.

IN ADDITION to his work in the field in California, Sullivan has served on various public relations committees of national organizations, including the American Gas Assn. He was chairman of that group's Public Relations Committee for the years 1958 and 1959.

Top Dragsters Ready to Roll At Lions Strip

Most of the country's top drag pilots will be on hand at Lions Drag Strip Saturday for the Fall Championships. Don Prudhomme, undefeated in seven starts on the Long Beach strip, will head the chase for the $2,500 in prize money.

Tom Ivo, Art Chrisman, Steve Porter, Hank Clark and Don Hampton will challenge Prudhomme for the fuel title.

New national gas eliminator champion Jack Chrisman will top the field in his pet event.

The toughest competition for Chrisman is expected to come from Tom McEwen and John Peters.

Toastmaster Speakers In Contest

Don Sander was selected as representative of the Rolling Hills Estates Toastmasters Club in the Area 3 Humorous Speech Contest of District No. 51, Toastmasters International on Saturday at the Elks Club in San Pedro.

Sander, a native of Dubuque, Iowa, is treasurer of the Rolling Hills club and is employed as project engineer for the Vickers Corp. He lives at 3427 W. 228th St. with his wife, Grace, and their three children.

Other humorous speakers for the evening are: John LeFevre, secretary of the Palos Club; Capt. Eugene Mahoney, treasurer of the San Pedro club; and Richard Ho, president of the Wilmington club.

Firm Creates New Position

Horace T. Pentecost, who recently joined General Technology Corp., has been appointed to a new post as project engineer in the company's space simulation group.

Pentecost was previously with Consolidated Western Steel Division, United States Steel Corporation.

In announcing the new appointment it was stated that Pentecost's assignment will involve project engineering and subcontract coordination for large space simulation facilities currently being installed by General Technology Corp.

Three Torrance Students Win UC Scholarships

Three Torrance students have won scholarships for study at the University of California in Berkeley this fall. The money for scholarships is provided by endowments, individual donors, clubs and associations, alumni and university income. Awards are made on the basis of scholarship and financial need, as well as character and promise of the applicants.

William G. Deck of 20513 Toluca, Rudolph H. Johnson, 4114 W. 177th St., and Charlene MacLachlan, 3324 W. 182nd St., are the Torrance scholarship winners.

Aquarium Fans To Meet Tonight

The Aquarium Society will meet tonight at 8 in the Recreation Hall at McMasters Park, Artesia and Yukon, in Torrance.

Guest speaker will be hobbyist Walt Daugherty of Los Angeles.

TV CANDIDS by Terrence O'Flaherty

If you're looking for a walk on the wild side it's hard to beat a stroll through the movie ads. They can make "The Three Little Chickens" sound like a love trio on a dude ranch.

"Death Valley Days" ... Blistering heat and torrid sex in a lonely mountain retreat! Only the Twenty Mules know what happens in the sand dunes!

"Bonanza" ... four half-brothers living together without women in the same house. What is their strange secret?

"Ben Casey" ... What lies behind the face of the doctor who cannot smile? Is he hiding a past that is too horrible to see? Would you want your daughter to marry a doctor? Have this penetrating question answered tonight as you watch him perform a daring operation on a glamorous smallpox victim half his age. Sex and sadism behind the walls of a modern hospital!

"Lassie" ... the unnatural love story of a boy and a dog! No dogs under 5 admitted.

"What's My Line" ... Watch in shocked disbelief as two couples play games with each other while another man watches. A new game every week! Guest stars!

"The Hathaways" ... Can three apes find real happiness with a talkative stepmother? Who was the father? A subject never before discussed on the screen! Straight from the shocking secret journals of Dr. Darwin!

"Dennis the Menace" ... Are these our children? Adventures in the secret sadistic world of the very young. Only children accompanied by notebooks and pencils admitted!

"Perry Mason" ... A courtroom gone wild! What is the secret behind a trial lawyer's amazing record of 275 straight victories in court? Can a judge be bought? Can a jury be bribed? What is Della's strange hold?

Mary Martin repeats "Peter Pan" ... What happens when three healthy English children share a cottage with Pan and his fairy friend? Some of the bloodiest scenes ever seen on the television screen. In color! Pirates, innocent children kidnapped by a sadistic villain! No one under 7 admitted. (Repeat next year for those who are 6 this year.)

"The Lawrence Welk Show" ... A story of the strange power that one man with a foreign accent wields over 40 men and four women! Can a shapely blonde organist find happiness in such a situation? No one admitted during the final shocking scene where the Lennon Sisters come to life!

"Royal Canadian Mounted Police" ... Men without Women! Just horses! Would you want your daughter to marry a Mounted Policeman?

"Wagon Train" ... Not even the wagon master dared to reveal what happened every night in wagon number six.

"Tall Man" ... Raw and rough. Right from the pages of history to the TV screen! Just because a kid has shot four men in the back doesn't mean he's incapable of love! Laced with brilliance! And sex.

"The Honeyooners" ... The rollicking story of a mad bus driver's strange friendship with the man from below the city streets—their fights—their women—their adventures after dark in a city of sin!

"Art Linkletter's Houseparty" ... What goes on behind the closed curtains at this man's house? Scenes of women in jeopardy while hundreds watch in spell-bound horror! Nothing like it since the last days of Pompeii! Free chinaware.

"Broken Arrow" ... Orgies at the Trading Post! Unadorned! Unashamed! Even the Redskins were embarrassed. No Indians under 12 admitted.

It is later than you think.
