'Dog Suit' Schedules Final Act

"The Man in the Dog Suit" may be seen at Chapel Theatre for two more performances only, Friday and Saturday evening at 8:15 p.m., located at 4164 Pacific Coast Hwy. John Luger of Manhattan Beach is the in-law who becomes the opposite of his usual meek self when he wears a dog suit to a costume party. "Mrs. man-in-the-dog-suit is Alma Nelson of Palos Verdes.

THE COSTUME of the lead player is responsible for unusually funny situations and witty dialogue penned by Albert Beich and William H. Wright.

Denton Wabell delights in flying like a helicopter, Bill Andrews plays the advantage-taker personality, while Larry Worch takes to the role of bank executive. All three are from Redondo Beach.

DIRECTOR OF the production and playing the part of the tipsy sister-in-law is Thelma Ledwidge of Torrance. Sally Conrad also of Torrance, plays the matriarch. "The clinging vine wife who tries to climb her way up the social ladder is played by Helen Borst of Palos Verdes. Bob Lohbauer of Inglewood plays the part of the bewildered cousin and 6-foot-2 Glenn Hoeffner of Hermosa Beach plays a childish complainer. If laughter is on your agenda, phone FR 2-9636 for reservations.

Fazios Open Liquor Shop On Highway

Making their new home in Torrance is the Fazio family, Mary and John, formerly owners of "Tis Ours," a restaurant and cocktail lounge in Liemert Park, who are celebrating a pre-opening of a new liquor store. The Fazios also owned the Turf Liquor store in Inglewood for 12 years. Fazio, a veteran, invites former and new customers to their new Rolling Hills Plaza Liquor store, 2525 Pacific Coast Hwy.
