Antique Doll Fair Scheduled Oct. 6-7

Embodying the theme "How Dear To Our Hearts," antique dolls of every type will be the feature attraction of the Fifth Annual Doll Show sponsored by the South Bay Doll Club. It will be open, free of charge, to the public from 12 noon to 10 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 6, and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 7, at the Eagle's Hall, Redondo Beach.

Early woodens and papier maches from the middle of the 18th century will vie for attention with glamorous French bisques of the late 19th century, a period aptly named "The Golden Age of Dolls." In addition, there will be an extensive display of foreign dolls illustrating the unusual native dress of many countries. Special entertainment programs will be presented both days of the show.

Home made refreshments will be available, and several booths will offer a variety of gifts for sale, including dolls and household items. Chairman for the exhibit of antique dolls is Mrs. Walter Carney of El Segundo, while Mrs. Carlyss Keyes of Los Angeles heads the exhibit of foreign dolls. Mrs. Carl O. Finley of Redondo Beach is in charge of the snack booth. Her assistant is Mrs. Raymond Tremblay of Manhattan Beach. Mrs. Gertrude Gould of Manhattan Beach heads the white elephant booth, and Mrs. Nick A. Adams of Redondo Beach is chairman of the bazaar gift booth. Mrs. Wiley Shoumaker of Manhattan Beach is in charge of decorations and display of the theme table.

Of special interest to doll collectors and hobbyists will be the offering of the recently-published book on "Apple Head Dolls" by Drena Dotson.

As in the past, proceeds from the show will be used to purchase dolls and Christmas items to be donated to Rancho Los Amigos in Downey. This year, however, the South Bay Doll Club hopes to be able to expand its philanthropic activities, with additional donations to one of the rest homes in the South Bay area.

Making the trip were Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Fossum; Messrs. and Mmes. Fay Parks, Fred Cook, Wallace West, Ludwig Miller, Earl Clark, Leonard Babcock, Vincent Villenave, David Jones and C. E. Howland.

Also, Mmes. Charles Ruppel and Allen Reisert.
