'Only One Benefit To a Customer . .

Ann Landers

Your PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Why would a fellow ask a girl out and then not show up? Wouldn't you think if something happened at the last minute a gentleman would telephone a lady and let her know?

Three months ago a fellow stood me up twice in one week. Last night it happened again. The man who stood me up last night works right in this office. I waited for him (with my hat on) for two hours. It was humiliating in front of my folks and my sister. I had my hair set specially for the date and I bought a new purse and a pair of silk gloves. This morning he said "hi"

This morning he said "hi" as if nothing happened. Since he offered no explanation 1 kept quiet, too. Some of my girl friends have had the same experi-ence. Why do men pull this? Should a girl telephone a fellow and ask what has hap-pened to him? — DISAP-POINTED. Dear Disappointed; A young sponsible and meonsucrate. I don't recommend tele-phoning a fellow to find out "what happened." But when you work in the same office and see him the next day it certainly seems to be a logi-cal question. cal question.

POINTED. Dear Disappointed: A young man who would intentional-ly stand up a date is irre-sponsible and inconsiderate.

cal question. There's always an outside chance of a misunderstand-ing, in which case the fellow should be given the benefit of the doubt. But, remember, Toots, only one benefit to a customer.

Dear Ann Landers: When I married my husband his ex-wife was pregnant but she did not tell him. Their baby is now three months old.

0 0

0

.

is now three months old. Dennie has received sev-eral telephone calls from his former wife asking him to come over and see the baby. Whenever I hear her voice on the phone I get weak in the knees. I wish she'd forget shout him hut I'm sure she about him but I'm sure she about him but in sure she won't. Dennie wants me to go over to her house with him and see the baby. I dread the thought of it. We've hashed and rehashed this until I am blue in the face. Neither of blue in the face. Neither of us knows for sure if it is the right thing to do. We've de-cided to abide by your de-cision.—SECOND WIFE

Dear Second Wife: If your husband wants you to go with him-GO! Many women husba (Continued on Page 30)

A PARODY IN FASHION . . . In fun these three members of the Dianas pose in their literal version of fashions to be shown at their benefit show on Nov. 10 at the Horizon room, International Airport. From left, Mrs. Charles Hillinger wears a "spring" coat and hat; Miss Sara Mitchell, models a "box" jacket and hat to match; and Mrs. Eric Lindgren wears a "shopping" dress covered with money. Proceeds will go to the club's philanthropies. philanthropies.

At International Airport

Dianas Will Present

Fashion Show Nov. 10

Women's Clubs, Junior Membership, Marina District, will have their annual fashion show on Saturday, Nov. 10, at 12:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. in the Horizon Room of Western Airlines, Satellite No. 5 at the Los Angeles Interna-

Redondo Beach Dianas, California Federation of

AAUW Members At Workshop

Stimulated by new ideas stimulated by new ideas to share with their fellow members of Palos Verdes-Rolling Hill Branch, Ameri-can Association of University Women, are 10 members who attended the California State AAUW workshop over the weekend in Glendale.

weekend in Glendale. Those present rrom the local branch were Mrs. Har-old O. Simar, president; and Mmes. Thomas Harding, Ray-mond Oddone, Frank C. Fish-er, Robert S. Fraser, John C. King, Joseph P. Jay, Peter B. Thorpe, D. F. Dyrsmid and Thorpe, D. F. Dyrsmid and Richard D. Smith.

Bay Health Center. Christine Buckley Becomes Bride of James R. Strunk

tional Airport.

Proceeds will be donated to the clubs' philanthropies which include the Las Palmas Girls' School, and the South

At an 11 o'clock nuptial mass and ceremony at the St. James Catholic Church in Redondo on Sept. 29, Miss Christine Buckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Buckley, 21317 Grant Ave., Torrance, exchanged her marriage promises wth James R. Strunk. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs.

James L. Strunk, 21402 Haward Ave., Torrance.

The Rev. Jerome Thompson officiated at the marriage and the mass as Mrs. Mary Busch played a background of nuptial music.

Mr. Buckley escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a traditional wedding gown of white lace fashioned with a scalloped neckline, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a pearl tiara and she carried white orchids and stephanotis. Miss Mary Lou Alford was College.

TORRANCE HERALD

OCTOBER 18, 1962

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

29

FLOWERS AND TEACUPS... Practicing teacup arrangements and making corsages for Garden Section's program and tea at the Torrance Woman's club on Oct. 24 are, from left, Mmes. J. P. Bay, president; R. L. Rudy, V. E. Benstead, and Roy Apsey, garden section chairman. After the judging of the "teacup" arrangements, a flower arrangement demonstration will be given by Chelsea Hendrix.

At Woman's Club Oct. 24

Garden Section Plans

'Teacup' Flower Show

Garden Section of the Torrance Woman's club,

ment.

beautiful.

Sobada Plans

Guest Night Saturday Eve Sobada Dance Club will stage its October dance Saturday evening at the Palms restaurant. A Halloween theme will be carried out in the decor. This will also be "Guest Night" for the club. Dancing will begin at 9 p.m. On the committee are Messrs. and Mmes. Roy Zhe, John Moore and Ray Donaldson.

In La Jolla Mr. and Mrs. S. Robert Saunders and sons, 5128 Mer-rill St. spent last weekend in La Jolla where they were sts of Mr. and Mrs. Ken-

William A. Whittington Claims English Bride professionally modeled from a Redondo Beach shop, and wigs will be shown by a Re-dende Beach salen

A wedding of interest in this area took place on Aug. 30 at the All Saints Church, Narborough, Leicestershire, England, when William Allen Whittington of Torrance, stationed at the Bruntingthorpe Base in England, claimed as his bride, Miss Jill Petrina Walton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Walton, Tudor Cottage, Nar-borough, Leicestershire, England The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vaun Whit-tington, 1230 Hickory Ave., Torrance The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of blush pink organ-

NuDyke-Gregory Troth Is Announced at Party entertained at a champagne cocktail party Sunday after-noon at their home, 552 Calle Mayor, Hollywood Riviera, during which the engagement za and lace. The gown, fashza and lace. The gown, tash-ioned with a long lace torso, had a scalloped neckline and long lace sleeves. The bouf-fant skirt was of pink or-ganza. Her full tiered veil was secured by a floral head-piece and she carried a tulle peece headbag trimmed with posie handbag trimmed with a spray of real pink fairy roses.

Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Daphne Jennifer Walton, sister of the bride, and Miss Patricia Hopgson. They were gowned in white silk. Five rows of failled tulle trimmed the bottoms of the trimmed the bottoms of the skirts. Each wore a picture hat and carried pink roses.

Three small bridesmaids wore full length pink silk d carrie

PAT GARRETT Will Wed

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Rand Garrett, 2279 239th St., Torrance, an-nounce the engagament and wedding plans of their daughter, Pat, to Jim Satterfield of Redondo Beach. The wedding will be sol-emnized Dec. 1 at the First emnized Dec. 1 at the First Baptist Church in Torrance. Both Miss Garrett and her fiance were graduated from Torrance High School in June 1001

Moores Are Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, 908 Cranbrook Ave. were guests of honor at a surprise party given Oct. 2 in celebra-tion of their 25th wedding anniversary. Co-hosts for the party were Messrs. and Mmes. Clevie Anderson Rov Zhe and party were Messrs. and Mmes. Clyde Anderson, Roy Zhe and E. V. Winkelbauer, who had invited the Moores to join them for dinner. When the celebrants ar-rived at the Anderson home they found a group of friends gathered for the party. A buf-fet supper was enjoyed after which the Moores showed movies of their we dd in g which took place 25 years ago in Chicago. The honor guests were given a shower of cards in which silver dollars were in which silver dollars were enclosed

Mr. and Mrs. Moore have lived in Torrance for the past 11 years. He is employed by the Dept. of Employment in Compton. Joining the hosts and the ries of competition: most humorous; most original; one Moores for the party were Moores for the party were Messrs. and Mmes. Tom Ran-dall, Kip Randall, Cliff Gray-behl, Clifford Trezise, Roland Petrat, Les DeMott and Mur-ray Rudnick.

Kansas Vacation

which will take place from 1:30 until 2 p.m., will be Mrs. Mildred Gilkes, Mrs. Virginia Lindsley and Mrs. Beulah Bennett. Ribbons will be pre-sented to the winners. Mrs. Marguerite Kelsey, 817 Madrid, returned by plane Sunday evening from a three weeks vacation spent Chelsea Hendrix, guest speaker, will present a flow-er arrangement demonstra-tion at 2 p.m.

enter a teacup floral arrange-

There will be four categokind of flower, and most

Judging the arrangements,

Champagne punch and hors d'oeuvres will be served during both shows by West-ern Airlines stewardesses. Reservations may be made y calling Mrs. Jerome Lesinski before Nov. 8.

Mrs. Jerome Lesinski is general chairman of the event, assisted by Mmes. Martin Galos, Robert Car-rington, and Chris Saunders.

Mrs. Eric Lindgren is in Holiday fashions will be

Scandinavian Airlines System will provide the "Viking II" ten piece travel wardrobe designed by Don Ioper, Beverly Hills couturier, which will be modeled by Mrs. John Kenny with commentation by Mrs. Raymond Williams.

charge of the invitations.

dondo Beach salon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rector

MRS. JAMES R. STRUNK ... Living in Santa Monica (Photography by Stanfords)

during which the engagement of Mrs. Rector's sister, Miss Carol NuDyke of Hollywood, the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Geraldine and Raymond L. Gregory, Secules, Mary Jan Strunk and 4718 Sharynne Lane, Tor-rance, was announced. The wedding will take place Susan Dodd. All of the attendants wore emerald green brocade gowns and each car-April 5, 1963, at the Rose-wood Methodist Church in ried a bouquet of white roses tied with green ribbons. Little Rosemary Buckley, in a white Los Angeles.

The future bride attended organdy dress trimmed with green, was the flower girl. Redondo High school and has visited in Torrance often. She received her teaching Michael Zupparde stood as best man and ushers were Bill credentials from San Jose State College and is teaching physical education at a Jun-ior High school in Covina. Jerry Likens and A reception for the 125 guests was held at the Re-dondo Women's clubhouse.

Her fiance was educated in the Torrance schools and is employed by Alcoa Alumi-Carol Lynne Doran registered Attending the engagement party were Mrs. H. M. Nu-Dyke, mother of the bride-elect; Frank Woodruff, an The newlyweds spent honeymoon in Coronado and are living in Santa Monica, where Mr. Strunk is em-where Mr. Strunk is en ployed by Douglas Aircraft. elect; Frank Woodruff, an uncle; Mrs. Mary Stathes; Messrs. and Mmes. Rick Both the bride and her hus-band attended El Camino Arnold, Truman Adkins, Don-ald Edwards, F. W. Fahnestock, Jack M. Goetz, Charles Gregory, William Kofahl, Ivan McElroy, R. G. Mont-gomery, Willett Rowlands, Maurice G. Wilson, Also Dr. and Mrs. Ted M. Brox and Mr. Harold Greg-ory OrV.

CAROL NUDYKE Spring Bride-elect

dresses and carried postes of sweet peas and wore crowns of pink tulle. In the bridal party were two small page boys, dressed in white suits trimmed with lace and black velvet ribbon. David Whitchat performed the duties of best man. Rev. Garrett officiated at the marriage and the Boys and Girls choir sang the nuptial music. A reception for the 62 guests followed at Tudor Cottage. The bride was graduated from Richmond House and Collegiate Grammar school. The bridegroom, a 1954 graduate of Torrance High School, received his degree in civil engineering from USC in 1959. He is serving with the United States Air Force. Next June, he and his bride will return to the States and will come to Torrance. Mr. Whittington will resume work on his masters degree in civil engineering.

MRS. WILLIAM ALLEN WHITTINGTON