The wife who is invited to go along doesn't have to wonder. And incidentally, Buttercup, chances are, she'll say a lot less.

You're Not Alone ...
YOUR NEIGHBOR IS READING THE HERALD TOO!

Dear Ann: I've been divorced 17 years and am having a terrible time with my daughter.
She is 24. She flunked out of college and she's had four jobs in the last year. She quit two and was fired from two. She has not worked since June and has made no effort to find a job.

Her idleness, sloppiness and foul mouth about drive me crazy. She smokes incessantly and never empties an ash tray. Glasses, apple cores, orange peelings and water melon seeds are in every room, on window sills and under the beds.
I work five days a week from 8 till 5. When I come home the house is just as I left it. I then have to fix dinner and do the laundry and cleaning. Sue refuses to turn a hand.

I have horrors of this situation going on forever. Can I just put her out of the house and make her take care of herself? I've thought of taking her clothes over to her father's but he has remarried and I know he has no interest in her.
Please tell me what to do.
—RAW NERVES

Dear R.N.: A good mother-daughter relationship starts

November Ballot to Be Discussed at Open Meet

Measures to appear on the ballot in the November election will be discussed at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 30 at the First Methodist Church of Torrance, 1551 El Prado. The meeting is open to the public.

Presenting the leading arguments of proponents and opponents of the 25 issues dealing with the state government will be the Provisional League of Women Voters of Torrance.

Following presentation of the pros and cons of the measures, members of the voters service committee will answer questions.

Chairman is Mrs. William Geisert. Her committee includes: Mmes. Ernest Knapp, in childhood. Yours never got off the ground.

Tell Sue she has 14 days in which to find a job. Then she can either kick in with one-third of her pay check for room and board and help with the housework and cooking, or she can live elsewhere.

It's high time you blew the whistle on this girl. Until you do she will continue to sit around, free load and vegetate.

To learn how to keep your boyfriend in line without losing him, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Necking and Petting—and How Far to Go," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Cardinal's Annual Party For Children on Dec. 16

His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre will host his annual Christmas Party for Children in the Beverly Hilton International Room on Sunday, Dec. 16, 2 p.m., it was announced today.

Glowing with a real spirit of Christmas, the party will honor 200 tiny tots from orphanages, nurseries and Catholic foster homes. It is the only social event of the year personally sponsored by His Eminence.

Patrons and co-sponsoring organizations will receive invitations next week to participate. It is through their generosity that the party's full purpose is achieved — that of providing a happier Christmas for thousands not receiving care from other agencies.

Proceeds of the party go to this purpose and last year 14,463 adults and children received benefit throughout Los Angeles, Orange, Santa Barbara and Ventura counties.
