

Bits 'n Bites

Today marks the opening of another Pizza Palace in the Torrance area. The new store is located in the new Carson Shopping Center at 1157 W. Carson St. The quality of pizza is of course the same as at the Del Amo Store. Also featured is the Pub House. The new store also carries many foreign and domestic draft and bottled beers.

And as of the Del Amo Pizza Palace each pizza is made with seven kinds of quality cheeses. You have a choice of 100 varieties of pizza from 98 cents.

If you want the night life atmosphere, the Del Amo store still has banjo and piano on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

For your pizza to go, just call FA 0-5555 and your order will be ready when you arrive.

Remember for "the world's best pizza" it's the Pizza Palace Del Amo or in the Carson Shopping Center, 1157 W. Carson.

Looking for a place to go to forget it all and relax? Try the Sit 'n' Sip cocktail lounge. Your friendly hosts are Pat Williams, Charles Johnson and Jim Braddon. That's the Sit 'n' Sip at 17321 S. Crenshaw, in Torrance.

IN SHOW . . . Pearl Bailey, who has been a national favorite of movie, television, and club audiences for the past decade, will be among the featured entertainers at the Torrance Police Ball which begins at 8:30 p.m. Nov. 10, in the new Long Beach Arena. Tickets at $3 per family are now being sold.

Students to Present Play At El Camino

"Who Was That Lady I Saw You With?" will be presented by the students of El Camino College, Nov. 9, 10, 16, 17, in the El Camino College Theater, 8:30 p.m.

Written by Norman Krasna, the situation comedy ran on Broadway for 104 performances with Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy in the title roles.

The plot concerns David Williams, a Columbia University chemistry instructor, who, though completely innocent, is seen by his wife in a compromising situation with another woman.

PLAYING THE part of David Williams is Dennis Morgan. Morgan has appeared as Ensign Pulver in "The Caine Court Martial," and was student director of "The King and I" and "Teahouse of the August Moon."

Jeanne Appel plays the part of Ann Williams. Miss Appel has appeared in several campus productions including "Cinderella" and "An Evening of One Act Plays."

OTHER MEMBERS of the cast include Joe D'Agosta, as Michael Haney; Ron Quint, as Harry Powell; Pat Romey and Cally Slater, as the Coogle sisters; Jerry Oliver and Len Van Pelt, as two foreign agents.

Marineland On Winter Schedules

Marineland of the Pacific has begun its winter season with permanent public transportation coming to its doors for the first time.

William F. Monahan, vice president and general manager, announced that Marineland will continue to open at 10 a.m., every day of the week, and the last complete set of shows will begin at 4 p.m. during the winter season; the box office will close at 5:30 p.m. He emphasized that the oceanarium is open every day of the year with continuous shows by whales and other performing ocean animals.

Metropolitan Transit Authority buses have begun permanent service to Marineland with line 127 running directly between Disneyland and Marineland on Saturdays and Sundays; on weekdays, line 127 runs to Marineland from Long Beach, with connections to Disneyland, downtown Los Angeles and other areas.

instructor, is advising the play. Serving as assistant director and set designer of the production is Chuck Turner, a drama student.

Ticket reservations may be made at the Student Bookstore. Cost is $1.50.

MOONSHINE OVER MARINELAND . . . King crab curry becomes more Ozarkian than Alaskan as Irene Ryan, who stars in CBS-TV's "The Beverly Hillbillies" as a whiskey-making grandma, spikes her dinner at Marineland Restaurant after a day's visit with friends in Torrance. George M. Foster, owner of the Palos Verdes dining spot, apparently sees no culinary harm in a dash of mountain-dew.
