

Oilers Tie for Grid Lead

Moving into a tie for the Peeewe Division lead, the Torrance Oilers robbed the Inglewood Bandits, 18-7, Sunday in a Pop Warner football contest.

The victory left the Oilers with a 4-1 mark and moved them into first place along with the Lawndale Buccaneers in the South Bay Conference.

Workhorse Mike Abrams broke loose for a 51-yard touchdown jaunt to pace Torrance. Jim Fox and John Billings also tallied for the Oilers. Defense topped the win as the Bandits were unable to make a first down by running.

ANOTHER PEEWEE Division tilt saw the Torrance Vikings fall, 27-0, to the Palos Verdes Lancers. Viking standouts were Steve Mitchell, John Cook, and Dale Zachmeyer. Brand Rooker, Torrance left tackle, stunned the Lancers by stealing the ball from a Palos Verdes halfback in the fourth quarter.

The Hawthorne Bees chalked up a 19-0 Peeewe Division victory over the Torrance Mustangs. Mustang coach Bill Lenihan felt Bob Duarte, Lee Hill, Tom Maxium, and Chris Lamb turned in outstanding games.

STEVE JASPER tallied three touchdowns as the Torrance Chargers mowed down the Inglewood Mavericks, 42-0, in a Midget Division clash.

Jasper scored on a 51-yard punt return and eight and 19-yard gallops. Ron Stone returned an intercepted pass for a Charger score and John Reynolds and Dick Perez each found paydirt for the winners. COACH CLOY Timms felt tackle Ray Hawks and Dick Gonzales, who intercepted two passes as a defensive back, were outstanding for Torrance.

In a Junior Bantam Division encounter, the Redondo Beach Hawks rolled to a 25-7 win over the Torrance Blue Devils. The lone Torrance score came on a 40-yard pass from Steve Ferguson to Bob Kimpel. Bernard Tucker slanted off tackle for the extra point. Dick Mason, Larry Downing, and Mike Harvey topped the Blue Devil linemen.
