President Mrs. Glenn Smith of Torrance will announce the projected plans of the newly-created Philanthropy Three Committee. The club concentrates on two main philanthropic projects during the year, but Philanthropy Three was recently established to provide emergency funds for short-term immediate needs. The committee, headed by Mrs. Norven McKean of San Pedro, is composed of members Mmes. Robert Campbell, Gordon Garrett, Tom Prevo and Jerry Steinbrecher. Club members will, as is customary each year at this time, bring to the Nov. 19 meeting canned goods for the Thanksgiving dinner for the club's needy family.

Mrs. Robert Jackson of Rolling Hills has announced that on Dec. 1 at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Redondo Beach, all children of club members are invited to attend the club's annual Christmas party. This year the party will feature "The Enchanted Toy Shop" with the famous Bob Baker Marionettes. Santa Claus will also appear before the expected 250 children to present each one with appropriate gifts.

BLACK AND GOLD BALL... Bishop Montgomery's School colors of black and gold, will be used profusely in decorating for the Mothers' Club annual "Black and Gold" Dance, Nov. 24, at the Elks Hall, 1735 W. 162nd St., Gardena. Preparing door prizes for the event are, from left, Mmes. Francis Chamberlin, president; Philip Buch, door prize chairman; Andrew Feketé, membership chairman, and Lars Holt, publicity. The Frank James orchestra will begin the music at 9 p.m. and play until 2 a.m. Tickets may be secured from Mrs. George Dolan, in Gardena.

Rebekah President To Visit

Torrance Rebekah Lodge, 347, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will host a District 66 meeting on Wednesday evening, Nov. 28, at the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave., at 8 p.m. Fay Martin, president of the California Rebekah Assembly, will be present and will serve as an instructor for the meeting. Other lodge dignitaries will also be on hand from all over the district, including Maud Milburn, deputy president of District 66, a member of the local lodge. Work of the order will be exemplified during the evening. All members of the Torrance lodge are urged to be present. Chairmen for the evening are all members of the lodge.

Harvest Ball Set Nov. 17

Holy Name Society of Nativity Church in Torrance will open the winter social season with its second annual "Harvest Ball" Saturday evening, Nov. 17, at 7 p.m., in the Nativity Church auditorium, Robert Klaesges, general chairman, announced this week. A roast beef entree dinner will precede the dance. Music for dancing will be provided by the "Mellowtones," a local combo. Decorations will be in the harvest-time theme. Klaesges has appointed Don Schwab as the ticket chairman, and Schwab will accept phone reservations through Thursday evening for the catered affair. The other committee members are Robert Ruiz, refreshments; Bill Camp, set-up; Joseph Piatt, publicity; and Mrs. Robert Klaesges, decoration. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Olson have been designated as host and hostess for the dinner-dance.

To Install Officers at Dance Nov. 17

Parents of the Fre-Way Little League will install new officers at a dance Saturday evening, Nov. 17, at the American Legion hall in Torrance beginning at 9 p.m. Proceeds from the dance, which is open to the public, will be used to purchase needed equipment for the Little League.

Ham Dinner For Public On Nov. 18

Fifth and sixth grade mothers of St. Catherine Labouré Parish School will sponsor a ham dinner on Sunday, Nov. 18, in the parish hall at 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., Torrance, from 3 until 7:30 p.m.

Chairmen in charge of the dinner are Mmes. William Fuller, John Vaughn, Virgil Vos, Robert Poteet, Carl Lascheck, Jim Koonz, James Bemis and Andrew Gunther. The menu will consist of baked ham, au gratin potatoes, buttered corn, rolls, salad, dessert and coffee, tea or milk.

For families with three or more children there will be a family plan with a reduction in price. The proceeds from the dinner will be used to purchase equipment and supplies for the school.

Mrs. Roy Stinchcomb, home and school chairman, extends an invitation to the public to attend.

Webbs Hosts
Mrs. James M. Skinner of Redondo Beach was honored with a birthday dinner party at the Pen & Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach recently by Mr. and Mrs. George Webb of Torrance.

Newlywed Chas. Meyers At Home in Torrance

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Meyer are now at home at 17107 Crenshaw Blvd. Mrs. Meyer is the former Patricia Ann Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark, 4167 W. 172nd St., Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Meyer, 17107 Crenshaw Blvd.

The couple was married Sept. 19 in a garden wedding at the Ivy House. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace and tulle dress fashioned with a bell skirt, scoop neckline and three-quarter sleeves. A cluster of roses held her net veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Jenevia Lowery served as matron of honor, wearing blue silk and carrying white carnations. Phil Meyer performed the duties of best man and ushers were Jerry Lowery and Charles Groutage.

A reception for the 100 guests followed with Miss Brenda Clark registering the guests. The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Carmel and Monterey.

Alumnae Will Meet Tonight

Palos Verdes-South Bay Alumnae of Alpha Xi Delta sorority will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Joseph Coulombe, 724 27th St., Manhattan Beach, for the regular business session. Mrs. Thomas Black, president, will conduct the business meeting, after which Mary Ann Haslet and Jeannette Altermatt of Hollywood Riviera Custom Packaging firm will present ideas in holiday gift-wrapping and packaging.

All South Bay area Alpha Xi Deltas are invited to attend.
