Mother and Baby Care Offered by Red Cross

Preparedness training for expectant parents will be offered through Red Cross in its Mother and Baby Care course beginning Nov. 26 at the Wilmington Health Center, 612 W. "E" St., Wilmington.

Registration for the free series of seven classes to be held on consecutive Mondays and Wednesdays from 7:30-9:30 p.m. may be made by calling Red Cross, TE 2-8321 or TE 4-6773.

Although offered almost monthly at regional Red Cross headquarters in San Pedro, this is the first time a Mother and Baby Care course has been scheduled in Wilmington, and will be the last class offered in the area until January.

Red Cross nursing services chairman in Wilmington, Mrs. Ardythe Harper, says this is

Harbor Freeway Debris Cleared

Maintenance crews of the State Division of Highways have completed a clean-up operation of the Harbor Freeway after Supervisor Kenneth Hahn recently noted an unusual amount of debris along the thoroughfare.

Hahn informed district engineer A. L. Himelhoch of the situation, pointing out that the debris was not only unsightly but could possibly cause an accident. Himelhoch reported this week that crews have cleaned up the debris, pointing out that more than $80,000 a year is spent on cleanup of highways in Los Angeles, Orange, and Ventura counties.

Krieger Named Bank Officer

J. Emerson Krieger has been named assistant cashier and assistant manager of the Torrance office of Pacific State Bank, manager Keith Pische announced.

During the past 14 years, Krieger served in various banking capacities with Southern California financial institutions including operations officer, electronic bookkeeping supervisor and lending officer.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, Krieger completed courses offered by the American Institute of Banking and was awarded a pre-standard certificate. He resides with his wife, Carol Jean, and their three daughters at 10816 Galvin St., Culver City.

Pacific State's Torrance office is its sixth independent, community banking facility in the South Bay area. Other offices are located in Hawthorne, Lennox, Windsor Hills, and Rolling Hills Estates.
