I think we all enjoy to see a new restaurant or specialty food house come into the area and make good. Well this is the case with the somewhat new Pizza Palace. It has been about one year since this eatery on Sepulveda and Hawthorne opened its doors. This anniversary has a two-fold purpose for its celebration. The first, of course, is the fact that the establishment is one year old and it still is as popular if not more popular than it was when it first opened and second, a new location has been opened in the Carson Shopping Center.

As further proof of the acceptance of this fine establishment one can look at the new Pizza Palace. Already this location has become known to the people in the surrounding area as the place to go for pizza and beer.

Those who have been in the Pizza Palace on Sepulveda and Hawthorne know the pleasurable "gay nineties" atmosphere the surroundings offer and the pleasant relaxing feeling one gets when the banjo and piano are playing on the weekends.

With the many expertly made pizzas and the numerous imported and domestic beers one can't go wrong to stop by after a night out for a quick snack of pizza and beer.

Bernie Jones Returns to Marineland

Sparkling with musical vitality and show-stopping comedy, the Bernie Jones Quartette has again opened at Marineland in Palos Verdes, unwrapping the merriest entertainment ever in their sixth appearance in the "Porpoise Room."

With a bright crowd-pleasing repertoire, the hilarious group offers several fast-paced, variety-crammed shows nightly except Mondays. Their wealth of musical fun assures lively listening for the next six weeks, for owner George M. Foster has booked them through Jan. 6.

The Bernie Jones Quartet will be playing during the holidays, as they have every year since inaugurating the "starname" policy at Marineland Restaurant in 1957. So enthusiastically received have been their performances since then that Foster has brought them back every winter for his holiday entertainment program.

A large and ardent following welcomed the vocal-instrumental group back opening night. They cheered their exuberant musical talents and madcap comedy. Such audience impact presages many more exhilarating evenings of song-and-fun in the "Porpoise Room" between now and Jan. 6.

Here is a letter that moviegoers should consider before seeing their next motion picture. It was sent from no one in particular and is meant for everyone in general. It reads as follows:

Dear Mr. Hollywood:

In observing the many newspapers and other media, I have come to notice the increasing number of low class pictures that have been produced. By low class I mean the kind that their advertisements say "adults only" or "no one under sixteen" or some such phrase.

You know the type I am talking about. To name a few, "Adam and Six Eves," "The Touchables," "Lolita," and a new one called "Poor White Trash." Not to sound prudish, but it seems to me that with all the talent in Hollywood, a film could be put together that not only tells a story that is close to the earth but in good taste. You don't have to make public all the fin arts of "love-making." You can save a little for the privacy of the home.

But if you insist to follow this trend, Mr. Hollywood, I am certain someone in your governmental structure will initiate some legislative action against your entire industry. Why not take the suggestion of the religious leaders of the day and clean up your own house and there will be no need for your law-makers to even venture one word in their respective assemblies.

Here's hoping for a better and cleaner industry.

Cordially yours,
Your Friend
True?

Torrance Operators Guest on 'Queen' Show

Two telephone operators from Torrance, Mrs. Hattie Brown and Mrs. Ernestine Goodman, were among the four candidates appearing on the telephone operator "Queen for a Day" show last Thursday. Miss Susan Hixon of Oxnard was crowned Queen.

Mrs. Brown, 18431 Elgar Ave. was the first candidate to be interviewed by M.C. Jack Bailey. Second candidate to appear was Mrs. Goodman, 3940 W. 171st St. Both are employees of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph.

Mrs. Brown's wish was for a new hearing aid. She is a teletype operator and her old hearing aid had a "feed back" which causes a whistle.

Mrs. Goodman's wish was for two tires and one wheel for her car and winter coats for her children.

Each of the candidates received several gifts, including an electric frying pan, a hand mixer, a bottle of imported perfume, a Hoover vacuum cleaner, an electric hair dryer and a coffeemaker.

Girls League Plans Dance

North High School's Girls League is now making plans for their seventh annual winter formal, scheduled for Dec. 15, Phyllis Jorgensen, Girls League president, announced today.

Silver Bells has been chosen for the theme of the dance, and red and silver decorations will create a Christmas atmosphere.

Committees and chairmen are: refreshments, Judy Bradford; tickets, Pat Cannon; entertainment, Peggy Oylar; publicity, Pat Tomita; decorations, Anna Alden; clean-up, Phyllis Jorgensen.
