Torrance High School Offers Holiday Music

Traditional Christmas music of Bach, Saint-Saens and Christians mingled with carols and folk songs from many lands will be presented for the public by the music department of Torrance High School in the auditorium tomorrow.

The choirsters, under the direction of Leo Sandoval and Mrs. Bonnie Foster, musical directors and instructors of the Tartar Choir and Giris Glee Club, will be featured in a A Feast of Lights. The customs of Christmas around the world will be given in songs, tableaux and murals by the students.

School and the general public are cordially invited to attend our Feast of Lights program," Dr. Carl R. Ahee, Torrance High School principal, stated. "We believe our musical presentation to be the highlight of the Christmas season."

The program starts at 7:30 p.m.

During the cold winter months, says the Automobile Club of Southern California, it is essential that drivers change their motoring habits to fit the season. Motorists must be extra alert for winter's deadly tricks.

To Award Two Top Seniors

The faculty of Stephen M. White Junior High will honor two graduating seniors with the Faculty Club Award at the Farewell Assembly, Jan. 31, 1963.

One boy and one girl will be chosen for the award, based on subject and citizenship grades.

Leonard Griswold, faculty chairman, states that "The competition among the students is very keen, and you can rest assured that those who receive these awards will have something of which they will always be proud; proud to say, 'This came from my teachers at Stephen White'."

North High Presents Christmas Concert

North High School's music department, under the direction of Robert Jones and Daniel Walker, will present its annual Christmas concert tomorrow.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. with the Saxon Band playing "O'Come, O'Come Emmanuel." Among the other selections to be played are "The Sleep of the the Child Jesus," "Ring Christmas Bells," "What Child Is This?" "Willie, Play Your Drum," "Sleigh Ride," "Jingle Bell Rhapsody," and "A Christmas Festival."

The brass choir, the brass instruments of the Saxon Concert Band, will present their arrangement of "A Christmas Serenade," "Pat-A-Pan Suite," and "Christmas Fugue."

Mary Jonas will accompany the group.

North High's Aeolin Society, boys glee club, will sing two selections "Round About Christmas," and "Goodnight My Baby," a Christmas folk song.

Norman McGrachen and William Kamper will accompany the Aeolian Society.

THE SAXON Choir, under the direction of Walker, will sing "Carol of the Bells," "Sil-

Burgundian carol, and "Toyland! Toyland," the theme from the movie "Babes in Toyland."

The program will be held in the gymnasium and admission is free.

Some 18,000,000 school children around the world get a daily CARE lunch or glass of milk.

ver Bells," "Jesu Bambino," "Behold That Star," "The Little Drummer Boy," and the feature song of the evening is Fred Waring's arrangement of "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

Registration for the free course may be made by calling Red Cross, FR 2-5858.

'Mother, Baby Care' Course Offered Here

Mother and Baby Care, a preparedness course offered to prospective parents by Red Cross, will be taught in seven two-hour class sessions, beginning Jan. 7 at South Bay Red Cross headquarters, 109 Emerald, Redondo Beach.
