

Ner Tamid Plans Chanuka Services

In celebration of Chanukah, Congregation Ner Tamid of South Bay will hold a Chanukah service Friday, 8 p.m., at the Redondo Women's Club, 400 S. Broadway, Redondo Beach. Rabbi Bernard Wechsberg has chosen a sermon that will delight the children as well as adults entitled "Fairy Tales and History."

Mr. and Mrs. A. Safinoff and Mr. and Mrs. S. Rogin will host the Oneg Shabbat following the service.

In addition to the Chanukah service, a Chanukah celebration for the children of the Religious School will be held in the cafeteria of the Silver Spur Elementary School next Sunday, beginning at 9:45 a.m. Heading the program will be a Chanukah play staged by the children under the direction of Mrs. Martin Surtes.

Chanukah symbolizes the revolt and victory of the Jewish people led by a volunteer army under the leadership of Judah Maccabee, over the Hasmoneans, and the rededication of the Temple on the 25th day of the month of Kislev (corresponding this year to the 22nd day of December).

On this day, it was decreed that an eight-day festival be observed yearly commencing with the 25th day of Kislev and that a candle be lit on the Menorah on each of the eight days, beginning with the eve of Chanukah, in gladness and thanksgiving.

This is a joyous holiday; one in which gifts are exchanged and parties are held with latkas served as the basic holiday dish.

Punks Enter Two Schools Over Weekend

Vandals damaged a high school and an elementary school over the weekend. Police apprehended three teenagers at the high school.

A 14-year-old and two 15-year-olds were arrested and charged with burglary and malicious mischief after they were observed by police running on the second story balcony at West High School.

The three youths had black charcoal smeared on their hands and face, police said. Officers said they discovered extensive damage had been done to the chemistry lab which had been entered. The incident happened about 7:15 p.m. Sunday.

Damage to Meadow Park School at 3860 W. 230th St. was discovered Monday morning. The vandals entered a building by placing a trash can under a window, climbing onto the trash can, and breaking the window.

Nothing apparently was taken but the vandals scattered books throughout the building, tore cards from book binders, wrote with black pencil on two world maps, tore sidings from the lower part of the wall on one building, broke the glass in the fire emergency box, and turned on the fire hose.

A copy of the first Christmas card, etched by an English artist, is in the British Museum.
