Water Rates Up Slightly In District

Domingues Water Corp., which serves some 16,000 customers in the Southwest area, has been authorized by the Public Utilities Commission to increase its rates by $41,000 per year, effective Jan. 1.

The increase was sought to offset the higher cost of purchased water, according to company spoke-men.

The new rates will add four company spoke-men.

The new rates will add four cents to the monthly bill of the average householder. Irrigation customers will pay an increase of about two tenths of a cent per 100 cubic feet.

The rate increase was the result of increased prices for water purchased from the West Basin Municips. Water District.
