Auxiliary Stages Yule Dinner Juniors Celebrate Christmas

Ulabrand Hall in San Pedro was the setting for the festive Christmas dinner party enjoyed by the Harbor View Ladies Auxiliary, of the Fleet Reserve Assn. 217.

Traditional Christmas figurines and scenes were used appropriately in decorating. Gaily wrapped packages were banked around the Christmas tree. Tables were decorated with poinsettias, holly and pine boughs.

A gift exchange followed the dinner. In charge were Mrs. Emily Cofield, party chairman, and Mmes Tava V. Miekley, John Beachamp, Michael Doktor, Joel Kellom, Victor Oliveras, Catherine Loro, Elvis Patterson and Earl Rush. Mrs. Harry Setzer and Mrs. Harry Fralich were in charge of the decorating.

Mrs. Miekley, president, conducted a short business meeting during which the group voted donations to Exceptional Children's Foundation of the Harbor Area, Community Chest and Salvation Army.

A board of directors meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Claude Fowler, 1443 W. Summerland St.

The regular auxiliary meeting is set for Jan. 3 at 8 p.m. at the Ulabrand Hall, 1152 S. Gaffey, San Pedro.

Restaurant Popular With Travelers

The Pen & Quill in Manhattan Beach has proved to be quite a gastronomic find for localities who have dropped into the coast highway hotel-restaurant before (and after) friendly aid familiar welcomes and farewells at nearby International Airport.

Only two miles south of the sky terminal, The Pen & Quill is a popular establishment for dining while waiting for in-flights or for entertaining arriving and departing guests.

Juniors Celebrate Christmas

Christmas was a busy time for the members of the Junior Auxiliary of the Little Company of Mary Hospital who collected and wrapped gifts for their needy family which include 11 children.

After delivering their gifts of toys, food and clothing to their adopted family, the girls visited the Little Company of Mary Hospital where they sang carols for the patients. Their new holiday project was a visit to the Earlwood Convalescent home where they entertained the patients there with caroling.

Patti Scott is president of the junior auxiliary. Other officers are Marlene Foster, Logan, treasurer; Annette McCormick, corresponding vice president; Carole Brown, secretary; and Pamela Free, recording secretary; Mary publicity chairman.
