A delicious addition has been placed on the menu of the Pizza Palaces both in Del Amo Annex and in Carson Shopping Center. Crisp cold salad is the item, with a choice of four dressings. There has been a tremendous response to this new feature at the Pizza Palace and in order to familiarize the people of Torrance there is a coupon on this page offering an introductory reduced price. These coupons are good any time so you can clip and save them for your next trip with the family to the Pizza Palace.

New entertainment is slated for an engagement at Mr. T. G. in Inglewood, on the corners of Prairie and Imperial. The new group "The Hi Browns" and Karen Williams, is a trio and is known for its showmanship and its danceable music. The Hi Browns will play six nights a week and Bobby Montez will be the star Wednesday night, Mr. T. G.'s Latin night.

Chin's Chinese Gardens at 1841 W. Pacific Coast Hwy., in Lomita, will open banquet rooms soon for use by service clubs or any organization wishing to hold dinner meetings.

Pepe's Pizza Palace at 1613 W. Carson in Torrance is announcing new hours. Pepe's will stay open one hour later, until 12 midnight daily and until 1 a.m. on Friday and Saturday, to accommodate the many Torrance bowlers who are just finishing their leagues before this hour. Also an added feature at Pepe's beer bar, you can purchase six-packs of beer to go.

Plush Horse Completes $100,000 Remodeling With Medieval Motif

The Plush Horse, one of the Southland's largest and finest restaurants, has just been completely remodeled and decorated at a cost of $100,000 by owners John and Chris Skoby of Royalty Restaurants. Following the motif of medieval atmosphere, elegance, and warmth have been attained with new lighting fixtures, varied colored upholstered booths, new service facilities and grill-work room dividers. One of the principal new features is the addition of a permanent buffet service. Over 50 feet long, it provides a spectacular setting for 20 hot and cold selections of delicious foods superbly prepared to please every taste.

ARRAYED ON a glistening bed of ice are a variety of salads, cold meats, cheeses, fruits and many domestic and imported delicacies. A choice of four hot entrees is offered daily at luncheon, served from 11:30 to 2:30 p.m. for $1.75. Another new innovation is the early buffet dinner which will be served weekdays between 5 and 7 p.m. and Sunday between the hours of 4 and 7 p.m. at the moderate cost of $3 and $1.50 for children.

A new dinner menu for table service is being introduced. chef's specialties include Steak Teraki and the famous Flaming Sword, King Arthur.

COMPLETE DINNERS start at $3.25. Added attraction for diners is the new visual wine cellar stocked with a most complete selection of domestic and imported vintages. Dancing to the Eddie Baxter Trio is featured nightly in the elegant new Lordship Room. The Devonshire Room for private parties has also been completely redesigned and other new facilities added for special banquets, luncheons and cocktail parties accommodating up to 300. Royalty Restaurants also operates the Queens Arms in Encino and Sir Michaels in Los Angeles.

Family Series Set

Mrs. Elizabeth McCandless, social worker, will conduct a parent education lecture series, entitled "Modern Marriage and Family Life" at the Gardena Adult School, beginning Jan. 17 at 7:30 p.m. and continuing for six consecutive Thursdays.

Mariner Lounge Featuring Dick Parker Entertainers

Dick Parker and Co., one of the West's newest and brightest night club entertainment groups is now starring at the Mariner Motor Hotel lounge on Pacific Coast Highway near Crenshaw.

Featuring Dick Parker and Kami Warner, with the backing of Stan Walker on guitar, Dave Roberts on trombone and Wyman Bower on drums, the quintet offers a fresh and exciting up-tempo jazz approach to old standards as well as new numbers.

has played with the Hi-Brows at leading night clubs throughout Southern California, Las Vegas, Reno, and Tahoe. His past bookings have included the Stardust and Dunes Hotels in Las Vegas. Miss Warner and the rest of the group have likewise played at such Vegas clubs as the Riviera. They perform at the Mariner nightly expect Tuesday when Joyce Collins takes over with her piano stylings.
